SYRACUSE® 2015 FOOTBALL

ENSLEY ATHLETIC CENTER

The Ensley Athletic Center is the latest major facilities addition to the Lampe Athletics Complex. The $13 million building was constructed in seven months and opened in January 2015. It serves as an indoor training center for the football program, as well as other sports. A multi-million dollar gift from Cliff Ensley, a walk-on who earned a football scholarship and became a three-sport standout at Syracuse in the late 1960s, combined with major gifts from Dick and Jean Thompson, made the construction of the 87,000 square-foot practice facility possible.

The construction of Plaza 44, which will tell the story of Syracuse's most famous number, has begun. A gathering area outside the Ensley Athletic Center made possible by the generosity of Jeff and Jennifer Rubin, Plaza 44 will feature bronze statues of the three men who define the Legend of 44 — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little.

The Ensley Athletic Center includes a 7,600 square-foot entry pavilion that houses meeting space and restrooms.

OUR MISSION IS TO WIN WITH HARDNOSED INTEGRITY WHILE QUIETLY SERVING OUR COMMUNITY!

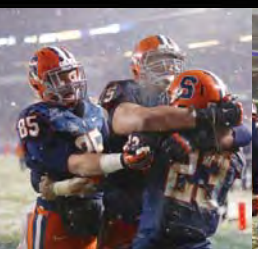
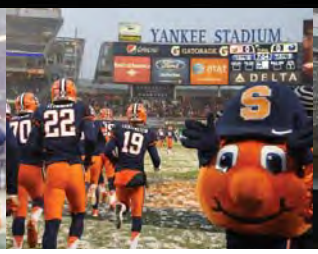
NEW YORK'S COLLEGE TEAM

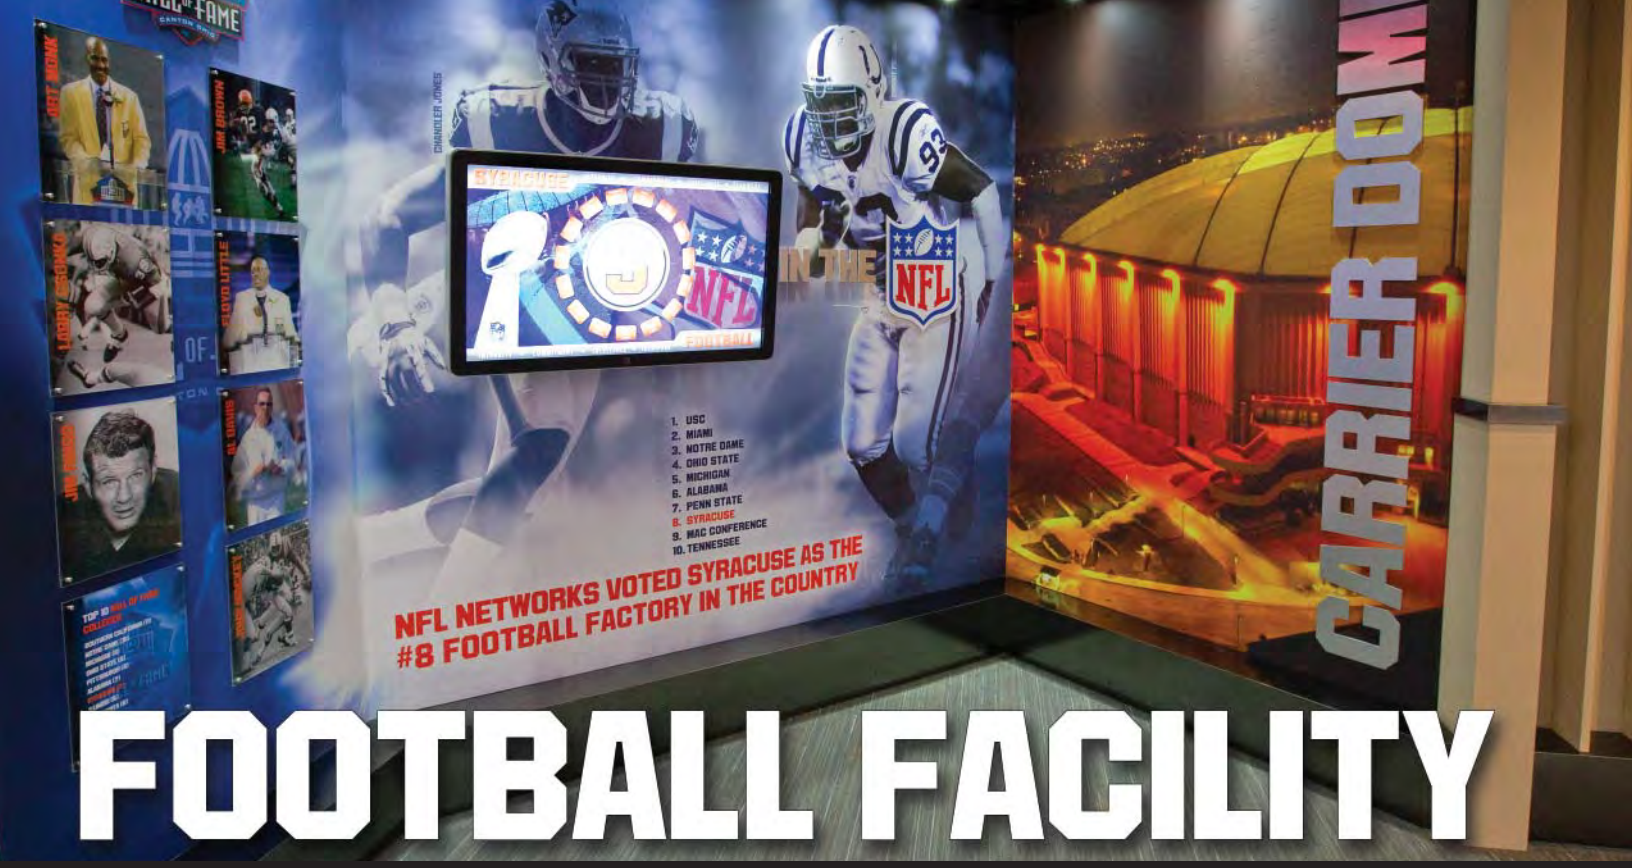




The only Power 5 school in the Empire State, Syracuse University is New York's College Team. Victories in the 2010 and 2012 New Era Pinstripe Bowls at Yankee Stadium and the overwhelming success of the men's basketball team in Madison Square Garden underscore Syracuse's prominence in the nation's biggest city, which is home to Syracuse University's largest alumni base.

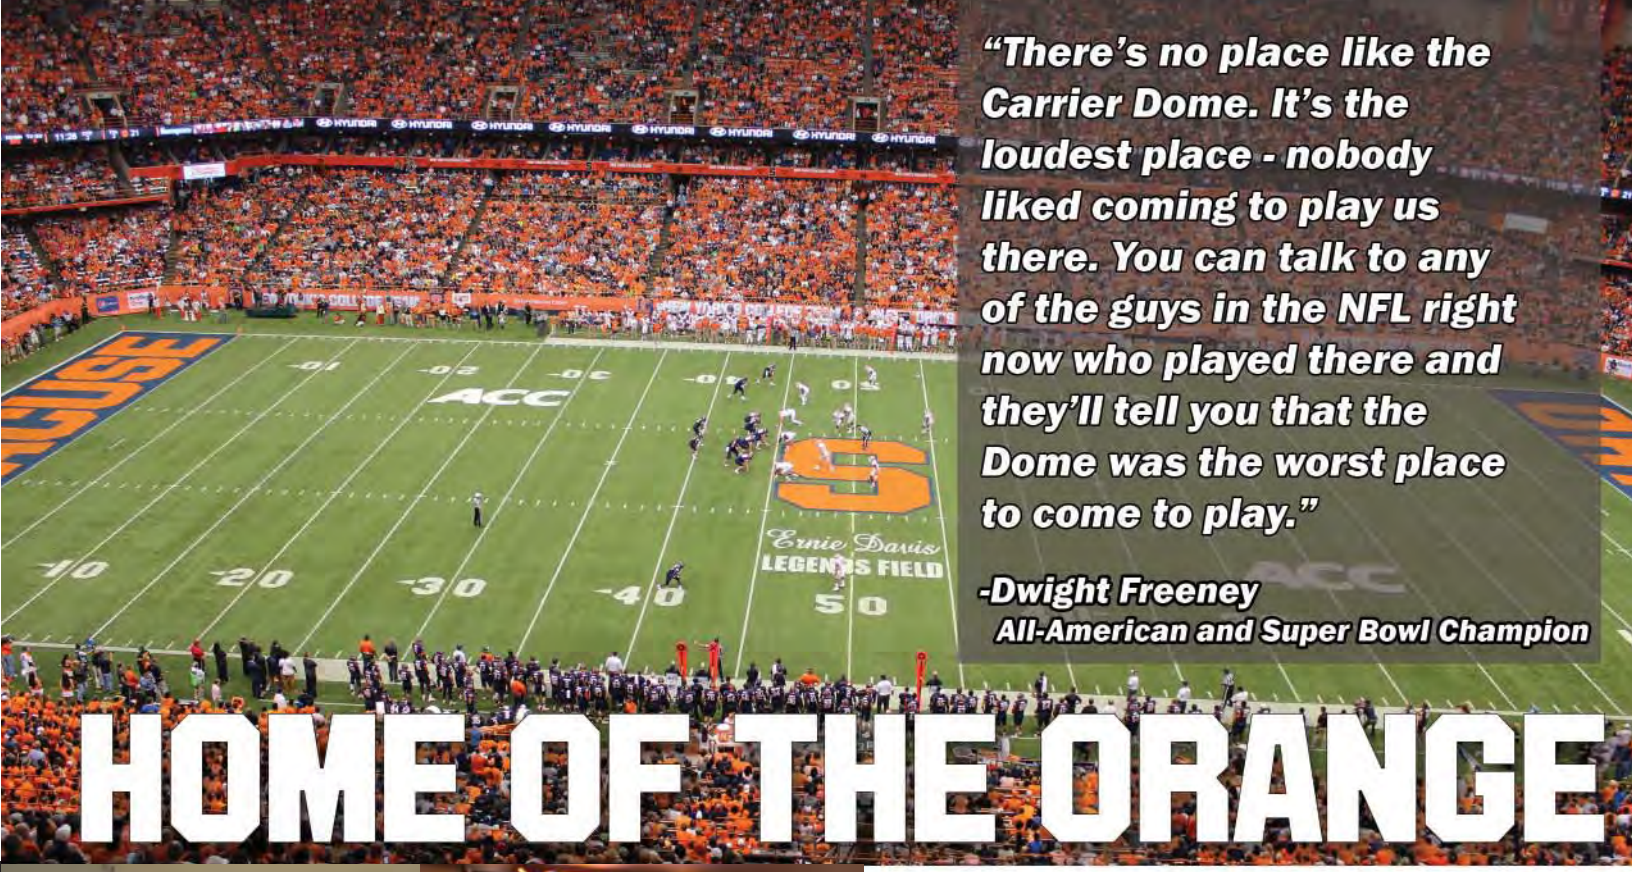
The Orange hue extends into New Jersey where MetLife Stadium has played host to the 11-time national champion Syracuse men's lacrosse team, as well as New York's College Classic football games between the Orange and USC (2012), Penn State (2013) and Notre Dame (2014).

The Orange brand is prominent on the airwaves across the state of New York via the Syracuse IMG Sports Network, which features game and coaches show broadcasts. Syracuse teams also make regular appearances on MSG and YES through the ACC's Regional Sports Network (RSN). 'Cuse athletics is woven into everyday life in New York City with signage on the ABC ribbon board, in Yankee Stadium, on New York City taxi tops, and in the Orange Box at the U.S. Open tennis tournament.



FOOTBALL FACILITY

The Iocolano-Petty Football Complex embodies the long and storied tradition of the Syracuse football program. The facility features a Carrier Dome theater, state-of-the-art player lounge, locker room and cafeteria, as well as displays honoring all the Syracuse legends.



"There's no place like the Carrier Dome. It's the loudest place - nobody liked coming to play us there. You can talk to any of the guys in the NFL right now who played there and they'll tell you that the Dome was the worst place to come to play."

Weight Room

From the Carrier Dome to the state-of-the-art strength training facility to the accommodations in the newly-renovated Iocolano-Petty Football Complex, Syracuse student-athletes have top-notch facilities for competition, preparation and for academic achievement.

Student-athletes have daily access to the side-by-side Schwartzwalder-Katz practice fields, the Ensley Athletic Center and the academic development area housed in the Stevenson Educational Center.

The largest structure of its kind on any college campus in the country, the Carrier Dome is home to Ernie Davis Legends Field and Syracuse's nationally-recognized football, basketball and lacrosse programs.

Since 2005, athletics facilities have expanded and received upgrades, including:

- Enhancements to the Carrier Dome, including the addition of a 360-degree ribbon display and new LED video boards in 2012, and the installation of a new FieldTurf surface in 2015.
- The construction of the Ensley Athletic Center.
- The construction of the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center.
- The renovation of the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex.
- The transformation of Manley Field House into an indoor practice facility.
- The construction of the football strength & conditioning complex.
- The renovation of the football sports medicine area to include top-of-the-line aquatic therapy and new modality and rehabilitation units.
- Locker room renovations and upgrades.
- Installation of FieldTurf on the Schwartzwalder-Katz football practice fields and the Wohl lacrosse practice field.
- Creation of the 'Hall of Champions.'

1959 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Undefeated and untied, the 1959 Orange capped an 11-0 season with a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse dominated its foes both offensively and defensively under the direction of national coach of the year Ben Schwartzwalder. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 regular-season games. Running back Ernie Davis led an Orange offense that averaged 451 yards per game. Guard Roger Davis, who was selected seventh overall by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft, end Fred Mautino and tackle Robert Yates earned All-America honors.

FOOTBALL HALLS OF FAME

Syracuse is one of the most represented schools in both the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame. It is one of seven schools to have 18 or more inductees in the College Football Hall of Fame and at least seven enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Four men have been inducted into both - Jim Brown, Larry Csonka, Floyd Little and Art Monk.

1961 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER: ERNIE DAVIS

In 1961, the Civil Rights Act was three years from becoming a reality. It would be four years until the voting rights of all Americans were protected by federal law. But an unassuming sports hero was about to play an important, yet unintentional, role in the burgeoning civil rights movement. On Dec. 6, 1961, Syracuse University running back Ernest R. Davis was awarded the Heisman Trophy. It was the first time in history that an African-American was honored as the best college football player in the country, even though blacks had participated in the game since the late 1800s.

As a sophomore, Davis rushed for a team-high 686 yards and scored 10 touchdowns to power Coach Ben Schwartzwalder's 1959 Orange to a 10-0 regular-season record, the nation's No. 1 ranking and a Cotton Bowl showdown with Texas. With the collective eyes of the college football world focused on Dallas, Davis captured MVP honors, scoring two touchdowns – one on an 87-yard halfback option pass from captain Ger Schwedes – and setting up a third to spark a 23-14 Orange triumph.

In 1960, Davis rushed for a team-high 877 yards and scored 10 more touchdowns to earn All-America accolades. Davis led SU again in 1961, rushing for a team-best 823 yards and scoring 15 touchdowns. In the Liberty Bowl, he ran for 140 yards on 30 carries and scored SU's first touchdown as the Orange rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to nip Miami (Fla.), 15-14.

A unanimous selection for his second All-America honor, Davis was then rewarded with the 1961 Heisman Trophy. President John F. Kennedy sent the following telegram to Davis in 1963 after a celebration of Davis' achievements in Elmira, New York:

> "Seldom has an athlete been more deserving of such a tribute. Your high standards of performance on the field and off the field reflect the finest qualities of competition, sportsmanship and citizenship. The nation has bestowed upon you its highest awards for your athletic achievements. It's a privilege for me to address you tonight as an outstanding American, and as a worthy example of our youth. I salute you."

Hoping to team the talented Davis with his SU backfield predecessor and NFL rushing king Jim Brown, Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell traded for the rights to Davis and then selected him with the first overall pick in the annual draft. But before the former Orange stars could ever suit up together, Davis contracted leukemia and died on May 18, 1963. He was 23.

In the fall of 1979, Davis, who had taken the greatness of SU's No. 44 from Jim Brown and passed it on to Floyd Little, was a posthumous inductee into the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame. In 2008, 'The Express,' a motion picture about Davis, premiered in downtown Syracuse. Syracuse University has honored Davis in many ways, including with the retirement of his No. 44, erecting a statue of him on the University Quad, constructing Ernie Davis Hall, and celebrating the 50th anniversary of his historic Heisman victory with an event at the New York Historical Society Museum in New York City in 2011.

LEGEND OF 44

The running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — No. 44. It is one of the most storied numbers associated with any college football program.

Three players who have donned No. 44 are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

Overall, 25 players have worn the historic jersey.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Student-Athlete Academic Development

The Stevenson Educational Center, located in Manley Field House, is home to the Syracuse Student-Athlete Academic Development staff. The center features a computer lab, tutor rooms, career development suite, and meeting rooms for daytime, as well as evening, study-table opportunities.

3.0 CLUB

During the 2015 spring semester, 49 Syracuse football student-athletes achieved a 3.0 GPA or higher. That number represented 47 percent of the total roster.

The educational center staff is involved in additional activities directed toward enhancing academic performance. Orientation programs for incoming student-athletes are held at the beginning of the first semester in order to aid in the transition from high school to college. Career planning programs have been developed to assist those who are undecided on their major course of study. As student-athletes approach the end of their college careers, programs coordinated by the academic development team help them enter the work force or explore opportunities for graduate school.

Staff members focus on the enhancement of academic performance through the development of study and communication skills, goal setting, stress and time management, and individual tutoring and mentoring. Academic performance is monitored to ensure NCAA, ACC and SU eligibility rules are met and that academic progress is being made toward graduation.

A UNIQUE PRESEASON EXPERIENCE

During preseason camp the Orange travels to Fort Drum to learn from one of the greatest teams in the world – the United States Army. Syracuse visits the 10th Mountain Division to develop leadership skills in sessions with soldiers and strengthen team chemistry, in addition to regular preseason workouts.

While on Post, the Orange holds meetings in an Army battalion headquarters, eats in an Army dining facility and sleeps in actual soldier barracks. In addition to their football development, student-athletes and coaches participate in various military activities, including Army physical training, small-unit leadership seminars and a paintball tournament. The week culminates with a scrimmage played before the 10th Mountain Division soldiers and their families.

Throughout the season, the Orange honors the 10th Mountain Division by displaying the unit's flag as it takes the field.

"Being at Fort Drum for a few days, I'm shocked with how much I've learned. I never really understood how much leadership and teamwork are involved in the Army. All of those little things that they talk about and they preach, I always find myself thinking about how I can work that into the football team. I think it will help our team because we are learning from the best team in the world."

– Ryan Nassib, Quarterback

THIS IS SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1870, Syracuse University is a private, co-educational, urban institution located in the heart of Central New York on a beautiful, 270-acre main campus. With an enrollment of 11,800 undergraduates and nearly 5,000 graduate and law students, Syracuse is recognized as a student-focused global research university renowned for academic rigor, richly diverse learning experiences, and a spirit of discovery.

The University's 11 academic schools and colleges offer more than 200 majors and a wealth of enriching educational experiences that often blend a strong liberal arts core with applied and professional studies, including experiential learning opportunities in a range of fields. The University has learning centers in New York City, Los Angeles, and Washington, D.C., and its study abroad program has eight overseas centers with affiliations that provide additional options in more than 30 other countries. Among the University's schools and colleges are many programs that garner national accolades, including ones in the arts, architecture, communications, entrepreneurship, engineering, information studies, and public administration. Extracurricular activities are abundant, from student organizations and service learning opportunities in the community to numerous intramural, club, and recreational offerings.

Syracuse's diverse student body represents all 50 states and more than 120 countries. About 25 percent are students of color and 17 percent are first-generation college students. This reflects the University's longstanding commitment to diversity and tradition of welcoming students with different experiences and backgrounds, as demonstrated in its nationally-recognized programs for veterans, their families, and those who serve our country.

With nearly 250,000 living alumni, Syracuse's Orange pride shines in the success of its graduates and in a strong alumni network that creates valuable opportunities for students. Whether involved in global study, experiential learning, interdisciplinary scholarship, or innovative research, students learn the value of collaboration and are prepared to make a difference and have a positive impact on today's global society.

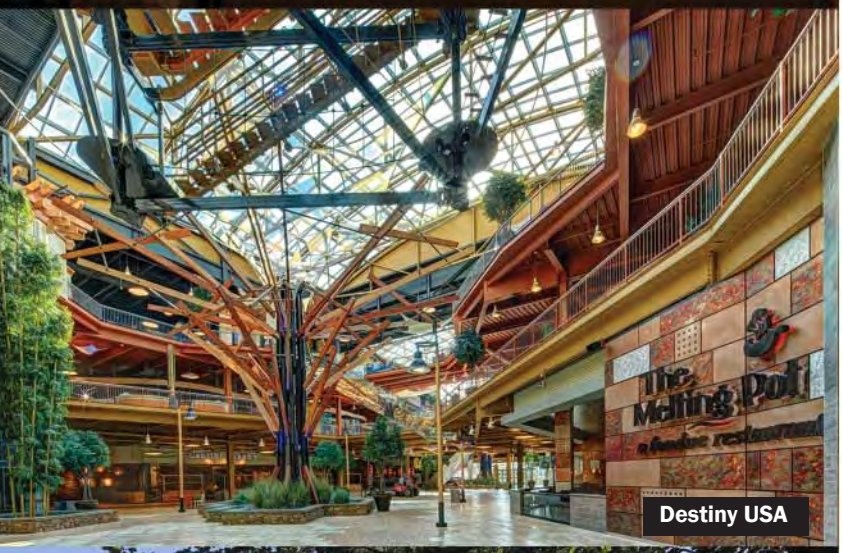
CITY OF SYRACUSE

New York State Fair



Destiny USA

Skaneateles Lake

Located in the heart of New York state, the City of Syracuse and its nearby environs offer a blend of city life and scenic countryside escapes. Among its many attractions, the city hosts a symphony, an opera company, museums, art houses, and a professional theater. Historic Armory Square in downtown Syracuse is filled with restaurants, pubs, and boutique hotel and shopping opportunities, along with the hands-on Milton J. Rubenstein Museum of Science & Technology. To experience some of the unique sites the city has to offer, visitors can travel the Connective Corridor, a three-mile urban design project linking Syracuse University with the city's cultural attractions.

Beyond the city, the area features abundant county and regional parks. The Rosamond Gifford Zoo, Beaver Lake Nature Center, Onondaga Lake Park, and Baltimore Woods Nature Preserve offer plentiful recreation and entertainment opportunities.

Syracuse is also home to Destiny USA - a 2.4 million square-foot destination shopping complex. Destiny USA recently underwent a 850,000 square-foot expansion that combines full-priced and value retail with fine dining and entertainment venues. It is the sixth-largest shopping center in the country, featuring more than 260 tenants.

Residents and visitors enjoy the region's four seasons, which allow for various outdoor sports, including cross-country and downhill skiing, snowmobiling, biking, fishing, hiking, and canoeing. In addition, more than 40 golf courses are located throughout the greater Syracuse area. For the sports enthusiasts, Syracuse is also home to the Syracuse Chiefs, the Triple-A affiliate for the Washington Nationals, and the Syracuse Crunch, an AHL Hockey team.

A yearly end-of-summer celebration with exhibitions, food, and entertainment, the Great New York State Fair draws hundreds of thousands of visitors every year. The area also hosts many other festivals, including the Jamesville Balloon Fest, Syracuse Jazz Fest, and the Great American Antique Fest.

In recognition of the area's many assets, Forbes magazine in June 2010 listed Syracuse in its top 10 ranking of "America's Best Places to Raise a Family."

The NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions issued a decision dated March 6, 2015, (the "Decision") in which the Committee found Syracuse University responsible for certain violations of NCAA legislation. The specific infractions, largely arising out of conduct from the past decade that the University voluntarily self-reported to the NCAA, regard: (a) impermissible extra benefits in the form of money, food, or transportation provided to certain student-athletes on the Men's Basketball, Women's Basketball, and Football teams by a non-employee representative of the University's athletics interest; (b) unethical conduct committed by three football student-athletes and a part-time tutor regarding the student-athletes' involvement in an internship for academic credit at the part-time tutor's place of full-time employment; (c) the former director of basketball operations and a former receptionist's unethical conduct when they engaged in academic fraud with a former Men's Basketball student-athlete; (d) a former tutor and a former receptionist provision of impermissible academic extra benefits to three former men's basketball student-athletes; (e) although testing and enforcement occurred, the University's failure to follow its written drug testing procedures for student-athletes; (f) Men's basketball staff's provision of more than two complimentary admissions on several occasions; (g) three athletics department staff members failure to report outside income or benefits to the University's chancellor; (h) former student-athletes participation in approximately 12 promotional activities without completing the promotion activity forms, and one former student-athlete fundraising for a charitable organization when the funds actually when to a commercial entity; (i) a former women's basketball student-athlete participation in an organized basketball game outside of intercollegiate competition; (j) two institutional employees provision of impermissible transportation to one former Men's Basketball student-athlete and one former Football student-athlete; (k) the head basketball coach failure to promote an atmosphere of compliance within his program or to monitor the activities of those who reported directly and indirectly to him; and (l) the University's failure to exercise control and monitor the conduct and administration of its athletics programs. In the Decision, the Committee on Infractions imposed a period of five years of probation on the University from March 6, 2015, through March 5, 2020. Additional information regarding the Decision and the penalties it imposed are available upon request. The University and Coach Boeheim have each filed separate appeals of certain aspects of the Decision with the NCAA Division I Infractions Appeals Committee. The Appeals Committee has not yet ruled on either appeal. The University will announce the results of the Appeal when the University's appellate rights have been exhausted.

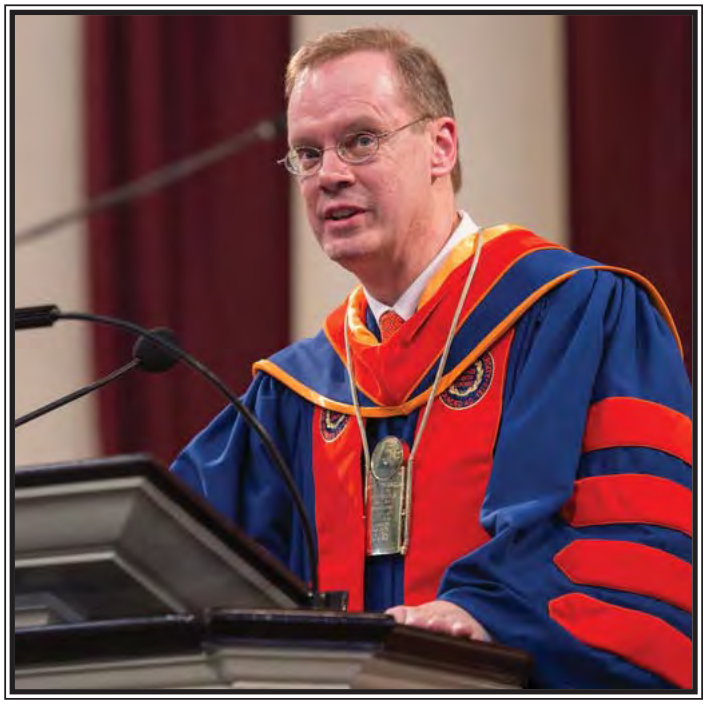
Kent Syverud

Chancellor & President



Kent D. Syverud is Chancellor and President of Syracuse University. Appointed by the University's Board of Trustees in September 2013, he assumed the leadership post in January 2014, becoming the 12th leader of the University since its founding in 1870.

Chancellor Syverud came to SU from Washington University in St. Louis, where he served as Dean and Ethan A.H. Shepley Distinguished University Professor since 2006. Prior to that, he served eight years as Dean at Vanderbilt Law School. During his tenure at Washington University, he led efforts to create university-wide programs in Washington, D.C., in partnership with the Brookings Institution, and in New York in partnership with the Olin School. He also advanced efforts to expand online education opportunities, including development of an innovative online master's degree program.

Chancellor Syverud has served since 2010 as one of two Independent Trustees of the Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Trust, a $20 billion fund created by BP in negotiation with the White House to pay claims arising from the BP oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico. A 1981 graduate of the University of Michigan Law School, he also was an expert witness for the University of Michigan in the landmark affirmative-action case Grutter v. Bollinger.

After earning a Juris Doctor and an M.A. in Economics, Chancellor Syverud went on to serve as a Law Clerk for Judge Louis Oberdorfer of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia and for U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor. He practiced law in the fields of litigation and insurance at Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering in Washington, D.C., from 1985 to 1987. From 1987 to 1997, he served on the faculty of the University of Michigan Law School, earning tenure in 1992 and advancing to Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in 1995. He has been a Visiting Professor at the Cornell Law School, the University of Pennsylvania Law School, and the University of Tokyo Faculty of Law and Politics.

A past Editor of the Journal of Legal Education, Chancellor Syverud also has served as President of the American Law Deans' Association, as Chair of the Board of the Law School Admission Council, and as President of the Southeastern Association of American Law Schools. He is a past Chair of the accrediting authority for law schools in the United States; the ABA Section on Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar; and a past Chair of the Board of Access Group, which is evolving into the largest funded nonprofit organization in the world benefitting legal education.

Chancellor Syverud has published numerous law review articles concerning civil litigation, insurance law, and negotiation as well as a monograph on the professional responsibilities of insurance defense lawyers. His more recent writings have concerned legal education and service as Dean, including the articles "Three Principles of Effective Deaning," "A Parable of Law School Leadership," and "How Deans (and Presidents) Should Quit." A frequent speaker at conferences in the United States and abroad, he has received outstanding teaching awards from students at both the University of Michigan and Vanderbilt University.

Chancellor Syverud and his wife, Dr. Ruth Chen, are the parents of three grown sons: Steven, Brian and David. Dr. Chen, an environmental toxicologist, holds a Professor of Practice appointment in the L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science at SU.

> "Each of us, including me, is called upon to do our part for this great place, and for its mission. Each of us, especially me, is a steward for the accumulated good works of the last 144 years. I will never forget, and I hope none of us ever forgets, that our efforts, while so important, add only one more layer, really a thin veneer, to the great accumulated work that is this University."

Mark Coyle

Director of Athletics

Mark Coyle was named Syracuse University's Director of Athletics on June 19, 2015. Appointed by Chancellor Kent Syverud, Coyle officially assumed the leadership post on July 6.

Prior to coming to Syracuse, Coyle served as the director of athletics at Boise State University where he was responsible for leading the daily operations of a 20-sport athletics department with more than 425 student-athletes.

Coyle took over at Boise State in December 2011 and during his tenure Bronco teams posted the highest grade-point average in school history, with 18 teams setting team GPA records and more than 72 percent of the student-athletes earning above a 3.0. Four Boise State squads — football, women's golf, women's tennis and volleyball — earned Public Recognition Awards from the NCAA in 2015 for having multi-year APR scores in the top-10 percent of their respective sports. Additionally, 10 teams recorded a perfect 1,000 APR in 2014-15.

Boise State won 12 Mountain West Conference championships under Coyle's leadership, including league titles in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, women's gymnastics, women's swimming & diving, and men's tennis. During the 2014-15 academic year, Boise State was the only FBS school in the country to win football, men's basketball and women's basketball conference championships. Boise's football program in particular continued to flourish under Coyle's direction. The Broncos were 33-9 during his time at the school and won three bowl games, including a 38-30 victory against No. 10 Arizona in the 2014 Fiesta Bowl.

Known for his success in fundraising, Coyle spearheaded an effort by the Bronco Athletic Association that raised more than $40 million in capital gifts and annual donations, including a $12.5 million naming gift for the football stadium. Additionally, Coyle renegotiated Boise's multi-media marketing rights agreement with Learfield Communications valued at more than $42 million in guaranteed revenue for the department.

Prior to joining Boise State, Coyle served in several roles in the athletics department at the University of Kentucky. He was first as an associate athletics director in fundraising and development. He was quickly promoted to senior associate athletics director for external affairs, a position he held for four years before being named deputy director of athletics. At Kentucky, Coyle successfully raised more than $140 million in annual donations and capital pledges, and served as a sport administrator for multiple teams including men's basketball, volleyball, and men's and women's golf. Coyle managed football and men's basketball scheduling, oversaw the hiring of head coaches and support staff, and interacted with recruits during campus visits. In 2011, Coyle supervised the men's basketball program which went 29-9 and advanced to the NCAA Final Four.

Before heading to Kentucky, Coyle served as associate athletics director of external relations at the University of Minnesota where he was responsible for managing the marketing and sales unit, athletic communications, the ticket office, and licensing. Under his guidance, the marketing staff was recognized as the top marketing staff in the Big Ten.

The Coyle family – Krystan, Grace, Nicholas, Mark and Benjamin

Coyle began his career at the University of Miami and later joined HOST Communications, Inc., a national leader in college sports marketing, association management, and media services that was acquired by IMG in 2007. At HOST, Coyle was a key liaison to clients, including the NCAA, the University of Tennessee, the Southeastern Conference, the University of Notre Dame, and Florida State University.

A former football student-athlete, Coyle received his bachelor's degree in English from Drake University in 1991. He earned his master's degree in teaching from Drake in 1992 and a second master's degree in sports administration from Florida State in 1993.

Coyle and his wife, Krystan, who is a physical therapist, have three children — Grace, Nicholas and Benjamin.

2015 SEASON PREVIEW

Head coach Scott Shafer enters his third season at the helm of the Syracuse University football program in 2015. After becoming the second Orange coach to lead the team to a bowl victory in his first season two years ago, Shafer and his club battled injuries to key players at key positions and went 3-9 last season.

Despite its 2014 final record, the Orange returns a wealth of experienced players, especially on offense. SU brings back eight offensive starters, which should help the transition to coordinator Tim Lester's system, which he began installing in the spring.

Defensively, Syracuse needs to replace eight starters from a unit that held nine of its 12 opponents from last year below their season average for total offense. Several talented underclassmen are in the mix for playing time on that side of the ball.

Syracuse starts the year with four straight contests in the friendly confines of the Carrier Dome, including the ACC opener against Wake Forest on Sept. 12 and a non-conference clash with SEC foe LSU on Sept. 26. The Orange will also host Rhode Island (Sept. 4) and Central Michigan (Sept. 19) in non-league games, and Pittsburgh (Oct. 24), Clemson (Nov. 14) and Boston College (Nov. 28) in ACC action.

The road schedule features a date with former BIG EAST rival USF (Oct. 10), as well as visits to Virginia (Oct. 17), 2014 national semifinalist Florida State (Oct. 31), Louisville (Nov. 7) and NC State (Nov. 21) during conference play.

Here is a position-by-position look at the 2015 Orange:

Quarterback Terrel Hunt averaged 255 yards of total offense in five games in 2014 before missing the remainder of the season with a broken fibula. Hunt is one of the most productive rushing quarterbacks in the ACC. He ran for 292 yards and six touchdowns last year before getting hurt.

QUARTERBACKS

Senior Terrel Hunt enters his final season on campus atop the depth chart. Hunt started 10 games in 2013, but was limited to five starts last season following a season-ending injury against Louisville. The Rosedale, N.Y. product was still able to rush for 292 yards and six touchdowns, and throw for 983 yards and one score in limited action. Entering the 2015 campaign, Hunt ranks 10th in program history with 2,621 career passing yards.

Sophomores Austin Wilson and AJ Long both saw playing time in 2014 and provide experience in the understudy role. Wilson played in five games last year, making his debut in the season opener against Villanova. The Camp Hill, Pa. native completed eight of his first nine passes, helping Syracuse to a season-opening victory against the Wildcats.

Long made his first appearance against Florida State, becoming the first true freshman to throw two touchdown passes in one game in SU history. The following week, the Lebanon, Tenn. native completed 22-of-32 passes for 171 yards and rushed for a touchdown at Wake Forest to become the first true freshman in program history to win his starting debut. Overall, Long was 89-for-165 passing for 935 yards and four touchdowns in 2014, recording the most productive season for a Syracuse true freshman signal caller.

Sophomore Zack Mahoney joined the Orange in January 2015 from the College of DuPage. In 2014, Mahoney was among the top JUCO quarterbacks, throwing for 1,943 yards and 18 touchdowns.

Freshmen Eric Dungey and Kenterius Womack are the newest additions to the quarterback room. Dungey set a slew of passing records at Lakeridge High School (Ore.). Womack was a three-sport star at Luverne High School in Alabama.

RUNNING BACKS

Juniors Devante McFarlane and George Morris II are the two most experienced backs on the Orange roster. McFarlane has rushed for 461 yards on 76 carries in his first two seasons. Last year, he ran 10 times for a career-best 114 yards at Wake Forest, including an 86-yard gain, which is tied for the third-longest rush in SU history.

Morris has recorded 435 career yards rushing on 114 attempts. Thus far, the best outing of his collegiate career came at Florida State in 2013. The Lawrenceville, Ga. native rushed for 67 yards on 21 carries.

True freshmen Dontae Strickland and Jordan Fredericks figure to be key contributors at the running back position as well. Strickland was the 2014 Greater Middlesex Conference Player of the Year at South Brunswick High School (N.J.). Fredericks was the 2014 New York State Gatorade Player of the Year and set the Nassau County record for career touchdowns (98) at Lawrence High School on Long Island.

Sophomore Ervin Philips sits atop the depth chart at the hybrid back position. After Hunt, Philips is SU's leading returning rusher. In his true freshman campaign, Philips ran for 194 yards on 45 carries.

Junior Ben Lewis will be used as one of the hybrid backs in 2015 after playing mostly as a wide receiver his first two seasons. In 22 career games played, Lewis has 25 receptions for 282 yards and one touchdown.

Senior Ashton Broyld serves as another weapon at the hybrid spot. Broyld has played in 26 games at Syracuse. His most productive season came in 2013, when he recorded 52 receptions, the second-most ever for an Orange sophomore. Broyld missed two-thirds of last season due to injury.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Sophomore Steve Ishmael burst onto the scene in his first season in 2014. Ishmael, the team's leading returning receiver, recorded 27 receptions for 415 yards and three touchdowns as a rookie. The Miami, Fla. native hauled in three passes, two of which were touchdowns, against Florida State last year at the Carrier Dome.

Sophomore Sean Avant sits behind him on the depth chart at the 'X' receiver position. Avant played in seven games in 2014. He made his collegiate debut against Florida State, catching two passes for 13 yards.

Redshirt freshman Adly Enoicy is looking to break into the lineup after redshirting his first season. Enoicy was a high school All-American and was selected to play in the 2014 Florida-Georgia All-Star Game.

At the other wide receiver spot, junior Alvin Cornelius is the likely starter. In two seasons, the Staten Island, N.Y. native has appeared in 19 games, recording 12 receptions for 176 yards and two touchdowns.

Junior Brisly Estime is one of three returning players that caught a touchdown in 2014. Estime made 10 catches for 140 yards and a score last season, while missing seven games due to injury. In 2013, Estime recorded 28 receptions as a freshman. The Delray Beach, Fla. native will also likely be a factor on special teams. Estime has returned both punts and kickoffs during his career.

Sophomore Jamal Custis played in 10 games as a freshman in 2014. He recorded four receptions for 15 yards, including three for 11 yards in SU's victory against Central Michigan.

The projected starter at tight end, junior Josh Parris made 22 catches in his first two seasons, including nine for 49 yards in 2014.

Ivan Foy fought through injuries in 2014. He made six starts last year and earned preseason All-ACC honors from Athlon Sports.

Ron Thompson is SU's most experienced defensive lineman. He shifts back to end after playing on the interior in 2014.

TIGHT ENDS

Junior Josh Parris provides an experienced option at the tight end position. Parris has played in 24 games the past two seasons, recording 22 receptions for 139 yards and two touchdowns. Parris made one of the biggest plays of the 2013 season, clinching the victory against Boston College with an 8-yard touchdown reception with six seconds to play. The win made the Orange bowl-eligible, resulting in a Texas Bowl berth.

Classmate Cameron MacPherson looks to get on the field for the first time after sitting out the 2014 season due to NCAA transfer rules. The brother of four-year letterwinner Macky MacPherson, and the grandson of former head coach Dick MacPherson, Cameron MacPherson played two seasons at quarterback for Georgetown before joining the Orange.

Sophomore Tyler Provo also has Syracuse football roots. Provo's brother, Nick, holds the school record for career receptions for a tight end (92). Tyler Provo played in six games in 2014, mainly on special teams.

Trey Dunkelberger joined the Orange in January 2015 from Pierce College in Los Angeles. A sophomore, Dunkelberger played one season in the junior college ranks before coming to Syracuse. He had three receptions for 34 yards in this year's annual spring game.

Sophomore PJ Batten is also in the tight end mix. Batten has been a part of the program for two years and moves back to the offensive side of the ball after serving as a reserve linebacker in 2014.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Injuries plagued the Orange along the offensive line in 2014, but in the process many players gained experience that should benefit them in 2015. Three seniors and one junior are slated as starters on the heading into fall camp.

Senior Ivan Foy is expected to hold down the left tackle position. In three years, Foy has played 25 games and switches to the left side after playing primarily right tackle throughout his career. An Athlon Sports Preseason All-ACC honoree, Foy started six games in 2014 and the Orange offensive line surrendered just five sacks in those contests.

Classmate Nick Robinson will transition to left guard after starting a combined 21 games at right guard the past two seasons.

Senior Rob Trudo also switches positions, taking over as the starting center. A three-year starter at guard, Trudo is the most experienced Orange lineman.

Redshirt freshman Aaron Roberts is a new addition to the starting front five. Slated to start at right guard, Roberts who is a Chicago, Ill. native, was an all-state performer at De La Salle Institute.

Junior Omari Palmer is expected to start at right tackle. He made nine starts last season, including seven at right tackle when Foy was out.

Senior Michael Lasker is another experienced offensive lineman for the Orange. Lasker played in nine games last season and will likely back up Foy at left tackle. Alex Hayes (left guard), Jason Emerich (center), Seamus Shanley (right guard) and Jamar McGloster (right tackle) are also experienced reserves.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Defensive line coach Tim Daoust will have to replace three of four starters along the defensive line. Junior Ron Thompson is the lone returning starter, playing with the first string for all 12 games at defensive tackle last season. Thompson shifts to end this year, a position he played in 2013. Last season, Thompson ranked second on the team with 3.0 sacks. Praise has been high for the Southfield, Mich. native, as Thompson received preseason All-ACC honors from both Athlon and Phil Steele.

A pair of seniors are slated to start along the defensive front. John Raymon is expected to man the defensive tackle spot and Donnie Simmons Jr. will likely play opposite Thompson at end. Raymon has played in 12 career games and is fully recovered from a devastating leg injury suffered at Georgia Tech in 2013. Simmons played in 11 games as a junior in 2014 and recorded 2.0 TFLs.

Redshirt freshman Kayton Samuels did not play in any games last season, but is first on the depth chart at nose tackle. The 6-0, 306-pound Ellenwood, Ga. product participated in the 2013 Florida vs. Georgia Clash of the Scholar-Athletes All-Star Game.

Freshman Steven Clark will have an opportunity to get on the field early as one of the primary backups for Samuels. Clark made 84 tackles and recorded 10.0 sacks as a senior at Brindlee Mountain High School in Alabama.

Junior Luke Arciniega received a medical redshirt after missing most of last season. He transitions to defensive end after playing as a linebacker in 2013 and 2014. Arciniega appeared in five games last season. In 2013, he recorded 18 tackles in 13 games.

Redshirt freshman Chris Slayton provides depth at the defensive tackle position. One of the strongest players on the team, Slayton was one of SU's most improved players during spring practice.

Zaire Franklin is Syracuse's top returning tackler. He takes over this year as the team's starting middle linebacker.

Julian Whigham will compete for one of the starting cornerback spots. He has four career interceptions and made 28 tackles in 2014.

A 2014 All-ACC Honorable Mention selection, punter Riley Dixon is fourth at Syracuse in career punting average (42.2) and sixth in yards (6,452).

LINEBACKERS

Syracuse's leading returning tackler, sophomore Zaire Franklin moves from outside linebacker to the middle for the 2015 campaign. As a true freshman, Franklin started three games and finished the year with 44 stops, including 31 solo tackles. His breakout performance came at Pittsburgh when he led the Orange with 10 tackles.

After starting in the middle last year, junior Marqez Hodge shifts to the weak side for 2015. Hodge was not too far behind Franklin in the tackling department, recording 38 stops in nine games last season. The Miami, Fla. native missed the final three games due to injury. Hodge's best 2014 performance was against Notre Dame when he recorded eight tackles, including 1.5 for a loss. In his career, Hodge has played in 18 games.

Sophomore Parris Bennett is slated to start on the strong side opposite Hodge. Bennett was one of 10 true freshmen to earn playing time in 2014. The Detroit, Mich. product played in eight contests last season. His best outing was at Wake Forest when he made three stops, including one for a loss.

Senior Oliver Vigille is an experienced reserve and will compete with sophomore Jonathan Thomas to back up Bennett. Vigille has played in 36 contests in his Orange career, mainly on special teams. Thomas appeared in nine games as a rookie and made four tackles.

Sophomore Alryk Perry is slated to back up Hodge on the weak side. Troy Henderson Jr., a freshman who led Saint Edward High School (Ohio) to a state championship, and senior Hernz Laguerre are expected to slot in behind Franklin at middle linebacker.

SECONDARY

Heading into the 2015 campaign, there are position battles all across the defensive backfield. Both Wayne Morgan and Julian Whigham present experienced options at cornerback. Morgan has played in 29 games entering this season, despite missing the majority of last year due to injury. He has 40 career tackles.

Whigham started 11 games in 2014. He recorded 28 tackles last season, including 21 solo stops.

A trio of sophomores will also be relied upon heavily. Antwan Cordy, Chaucey Scissum, and Corey Winfield are all listed as starters or co-starters heading into fall camp. All three players played in at least 11 games in 2014, with Scissum and Winfield appearing in all 12 contests. Winfield recorded 14 tackles last season and is expected to compete for a starting role at corner. Cordy is listed as the first-string strong safety. He made 10 stops in his inaugural year with the Orange. Scissum is in the mix at the free safety position and played mostly special teams in 2014.

Cordell Hudson and Rodney Williams both are redshirt freshmen looking to make their marks. Hudson will battle Whigham for reps at corner, while Williams will challenge Scissum at free safety. Williams recorded two tackles and a fumble recovery at Central Michigan before missing the rest of the season with an injury.

Senior walk-on Eric Jackson and redshirt freshman Juwan Dowels provide depth at corner. True freshmen Kielan Whitner and Christopher Fredrick are options at strong safety. Whitner recorded 210 career tackles at Mountain View High School in Georgia. Fredrick is a fellow Georgian who starred at Cedar Grove High School where he was a 2014 Class AAA All-State First Team selection.

SPECIALISTS

Sophomore Cole Murphy made a smooth transition from the high school to college ranks as a true freshman in 2014. A Lou Groza Award semifinalist, Murphy hit 13-of-16 field goal attempts, including two from 50 yards out. Murphy connected on 11 extra points as well to lead Syracuse in scoring with 50 points.

Senior Ryan Norton is the Orange's second-string kicker. In his Syracuse career, Norton has made 14 field goals. His longest was a 44-yarder in 2013.

Senior Riley Dixon was an All-ACC honoree as a junior in 2014 ranks and among the school's best in nearly every punting category. Dixon enters his final season fourth in program history in career punting average (42.2), sixth in yards (6,452), and ninth in career punts (153). In addition, Dixon proved to be a versatile weapon in 2014. While serving as the team's holder, the Blossvale, N.Y. native completed the game-winning touchdown pass on a fake field goal against Villanova. He also had a 42-yard run against Notre Dame on a fake punt.

Freshman Matt Keller and senior Keith Mitsuuchi are vying for the starting long snapper role. Keller, who played his high school ball at Penn Manor (Pa.), enrolled at Syracuse in January and participated in spring practice. Mitsuuchi joined the Orange in 2013 and has been tutored for two seasons by departed four-year starter Sam Rodgers.

THE SCOTT SHAFER SHOW

'The Scott Shafer Show' airs live each Thursday night during the season from 7 to 8 p.m. on the Syracuse IMG Sports Network and Cuse.com.

Coach Shafer and host Matt Park discuss the Orange's previous game, preview Syracuse's upcoming opponent and answer phone calls (1-888-7GOCUSE) and emails from fans. Questions and comments can be submitted any time via the link on Cuse.com.

Additionally, Coach Shafer makes regular weekly appearances on the popular 'Gomez and Lisa' morning show on TK99 and on 'Upon Further Review' on ESPN Radio 97.7 FM.

GALAXY COMMUNICATIONS

The flagship station for the Syracuse IMG Sports Network is Galaxy Communications' TK99 (WTKW 99.5 FM) in downtown Syracuse.

Since 2007, Galaxy's stations (TK99, ESPN Radio 97.7 and WTLA 1200) have served as the play-by-play home of the Orange football, men's and women's basketball, and men's lacrosse teams.

Additionally, head coach Scott Shafer, Syracuse athletics administrators, and other coaches make regular weekly appearances on Galaxy stations throughout the year.

WAER FM 88.3

Located on the Syracuse University campus, WAER FM 88.3 broadcasts all SU football games, as well. Jay Alter is the sports director.

Scott Shafer

Head Coach

Baldwin Wallace University '90 • Indiana University (MS) '93

Coaching Accomplishments

- At Syracuse, has coached 15 players who have combined to receive all-conference honors 19 times (ACC – 2014: Riley Dixon, Sean Hickey, Cameron Lynch; 2013: Jay Bromley, Durell Eskridge, Sean HIckey, Macky MacPherson, Jerome Smith, Marquis Spruill; BIG EAST – 2012: Shamarko Thomas, Brandon Sharpe; 2011: Chandler Jones, Marquis Spruill, Phillip Thomas; 2010: Doug Hogue, Chandler Jones, Derrell Smith; 2009: Arthur Jones, Derrell Smith).
- In 24 years, he has coached 41 all-conference performers, including four All-Americans.
- Guided the Orange to a 7-6 record in 2013, including a victory against Minnesota in the Texas Bowl to become second head coach in school history to win a bowl game in his inaugural season.
- In 2012, the Orange defense ranked sixth nationally and led the BIG EAST in tackles for loss (7.7 per game).
- 2010 AFCA National Assistant Coach of the Year nominee.
- Led a 2010 defense that improved in almost every major statistical category from the previous year — total defense (7th from 37th), first downs allowed (12th from 27th), pass defense (10th from 85th), pass efficiency defense (14th from 113th) and scoring defense (13th from 81st).
- Directed the 2009 Orange defense which improved in the national statistical rankings in third-down defense (28th from 117th), first downs allowed (27th from 104th), total defense (37th from 114th) and sacks (6th from 100th).
- In 2009, Shafer mentored fifth-round NFL draft choice Arthur Jones, who went on to win a Super Bowl with the Baltimore Ravens.
- In 2007, his defense at Stanford improved in every NCAA statistical category from the previous season.
- Shafer played a key role in one of the biggest turnarounds in Western Michigan history, as the team went from 1-11 in 2004 to 7-4 in 2005 and 8-4 in 2006.
- In 2006, his defensive unit at WMU led the nation in interceptions (24), sacks (46), and finished sixth in run defense, seventh in turnover margin, 11th in total defense, and 14th in opponent third-down conversions.
- In 2006, Western Michigan set a MAC record for the fewest rushing yards allowed per game (76.1 ypg).
- In 2006, he was nominated for the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach.
- In 2003, Northern Illinois ranked third nationally in interceptions (23) and in the top three in every defensive category.
- His 2002 unit led the MAC in every defensive category.
- In 1995, he helped lead Rhode Island to the New England Division title.

Playing Accomplishments

- Played one season at Ohio University (1985).
- Transferred to Baldwin Wallace (1986-90) where he was the quarterback for an offense that ranked 17th nationally in passing efficiency.
- Baldwin Wallace team captain.

"Scott Shafer brings enthusiasm to teaching young men to be excited about the game of football and play it the right way. He is going to make it an environment that's fun to be in – the coaches are going to love to come to work every day and the players are going to love to come to practice every day. I think the results of that will show when people are watching the games, the team and their unity. They will know that it starts from the top. It will be an exciting, fun environment for everyone.

"Coach Shafer believes in keeping it simple, having guys play fast and with a lot of emotion. Everything is about passion and enjoying the game, the camaraderie and guys playing together. That is what Scott is about and I think it's going to transfer onto the field."

David Shaw
Head Coach, Stanford

"I am excited about the tremendous opportunity for Coach Shafer and Syracuse University. Scott is hard-working, enthusiastic and of high character. Great things will happen with Shafe. He and his family will continue the rich and great Syracuse tradition."

Jim Harbaugh
Head Coach, Michigan

"As a Syracuse letterwinner, I am proud to have Scott Shafer leading the football program. He is a person of high integrity who cares about the student-athletes and their development on and off the field. Scott has proven his expertise as a defensive coordinator and is ready to lead the program. I wish him all the best as the head coach of the Orange."

2015 FOOTBALL STAFF

Joe Furco

Offensive Graduate Assistant
Elmhurst College '13

Joe Furco joined the Orange coaching staff as a graduate assistant for offense in 2015 after coaching the running backs and quarterbacks in 2013, and wide receivers in 2014 at Division III Loras College.

At Loras, he mentored several all-conference players, including All-Intercollegiate Athletic Conference receiver Danny Willis. In 2014, receiver Nate Even ranked fifth nationally in receiving yards and sixth in yards per game. He led the Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in four statistical categories. Overall, Loras set nine school records related to wide receiver play during Furco's tenure.

A 2013 graduate of Elmhurst College, Furco was a four-year starter at quarterback and led the Bluejays to a Collegiate Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin (CCIW) Championship and the NCAA Division III playoffs in 2012. While playing for SU offensive line coach Joe Adam, Furco set the Elmhurst career records for total offense (8,113 yards), passing yards (8,002), touchdown passes (67) and completions (655).

Furco earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Elmhurst in 2013.

Jesse Johnson

Defensive Graduate Assistant
Michigan State University '11

Jesse Johnson is in his first year as a member of the Syracuse staff and will serve as a defensive graduate assistant coach in 2015. Johnson previously held the same position at Central Michigan from 2013-14, and worked as a defensive/special teams quality control coach at The Citadel in 2012.

Johnson played four seasons (2007-10) as a defensive back at Michigan State, earning a scholarship in 2009. He was a team captain the following year and helped lead MSU to a share of the 2010 Big Ten title.

Johnson holds a bachelor's degree in social science from Michigan State.

Christopher Kirkpatrick

Offensive Graduate Assistant
Elmhurst College '13

Christopher Kirkpatrick came to Syracuse in June 2015 from Hoffman Estates High School, where he was the varsity offensive line coach and a substitute teacher.

In 2013 and 2014, he was a graduate assistant at North Central College (Ill.), mentoring the offensive line and tight ends. There, Kirkpatrick worked with four all-conference performers, three all-region selections and one All-American. The Cardinals posted a 21-3 record in his two seasons and advanced to the NCAA Division III national semifinals in 2013.

A three-year starter for Elmhurst College at center, Kirkpatrick played for SU offensive coordinator Tim Lester and was a 2012 All-CCIW First Team selection. Kirkpatrick received his bachelor's degree in history from Elmhurst in 2013.

Bart Tanski

Defensive Graduate Assistant
Bowling Green State University '13
University of Findlay '15

Bart Tanski is in his first year as a graduate assistant coach for the defense. Prior to joining the Orange, Tanski spent two years at the University of Findlay coaching the team's wide receivers (2014), outside linebackers (2014) and defensive backs (2013). He also served as Findlay's assistant special teams coordinator in 2013.

Named Ohio's Mr. Football in 2007, Tanski was a walk-on at Bowling Green. He played quarterback and wide receiver for the Falcons, eventually earning a scholarship and serving as a team captain in 2012.

Tanski holds a bachelor's degree in engineering technology from Bowling Green and a master's degree in business administration from Findlay.

Steve Gregory

Special Teams Quality Control
Syracuse University '06

After an eight-year NFL career, Syracuse University alum Steve Gregory returned to his alma mater as the special teams quality control coach in June 2015.

Gregory spent six seasons as a defensive back with the San Diego Chargers (2006-11) before finishing his career with the New England Patriots (2012-2013). Gregory recorded 357 tackles, seven interceptions and 25 pass breakups in the NFL and helped the Patriots reach consecutive AFC title games.

Prior to embarking on his pro career, Gregory was a wide receiver and cornerback for the Orange from 2002-05. He ranks third at Syracuse in both career passes defended (40) and most pass breakups (34). In 2002, Gregory was named a Sporting News Freshman All-American after ranking fifth nationally and first among freshmen with 21 passes defended.

Gregory holds a bachelor's degree in marketing and finance from Syracuse.

Alvah Hansbro

Defensive Quality Control
Northern Illinois University '06

Alvah Hansbro is in his second year with the Orange football program as the defensive quality control coach.

Previously, Hansbro served as the defensive backs coach at Glenville State College in 2012 and 2013.

Duing his time at Glenville State, the Pioneers led Division II in passes defended (2013) and he coached three defensive backs who were two-time All-Mountain East Conference selections and mentored one All-American.

Before heading to Glenville State, Hansbro coached defensive backs at the University of Dubuque in 2009, was the defensive coordinator for the Edgewood High School varsity team from 2007-09 and also worked at Edgewood again in 2011. In addition, Hansbro was a student coach at his alma mater, Northern Illinois, in 2006.

Hansbro played for the Huskies from 2002-05 where he started at cornerback for three seasons, two of which were for Orange head coach Scott Shafer who was then the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Hansbro led the secondary with 68 tackles as a junior in 2005.

Hansbro received his bachelor's degree in organizational and corporate communication from Northern Illinois in 2006.

Pat Reilly

Offensive Quality Control
SUNY Cortland '13

Pat Reilly is in his third season with the Syracuse football program.

His first position with the Orange was as an offensive intern during the fall of 2013. As an intern, he worked with the tight ends and was responsible for the breakdown of opponent and self-scouting film, as well as charting plays. Prior to returning to Syracuse in 2014, Reilly briefly served as the tight ends coach at SUNY Brockport. While with the Orange, Reilly previously worked with the quarterbacks and receivers.

As an undergraduate student, the Levittown, N.Y. native began his coaching career at SUNY Cortland, where he served as the offffensive quality control coach and director of video operations. In 2010, Reilly worked as an assistant wide receivers coach and then as assistant offensive line coach from 2011 to 2012.

Reilly graduated cum laude from Cortland in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in sport management and minors in computer applications and economics.

2015 FOOTBALL STAFF

Austin Beehner

Video Coordinator
SUNY Cortland '12

Austin Beehner returned to the Syracuse football staff as the director of video operations in March 2013 after serving as a video operations intern during the spring of 2012 while he was completing his undergraduate degree at SUNY Cortland. As the director of video operations, Beehner is responsible for managing the internal video network, preparing game and practice film for coaches and student-athletes, supervising and teaching interns, and managing a staff of student camera operators.

Prior to returning to Syracuse, Beehner was the football video operations assistant at The Ohio State University from June 2012 through the 2012 football season. At Ohio State, Beehner filmed, imported and edited game and practice film, managed the video department student assistants, and provided technical support for coaches and student-athletes. He also helped produce opponent breakdowns and self-scouting films for the Buckeyes.

In his first stint at Syracuse, Beehner was responsible for gathering and editing game and practice film and produced individual highlight films for student-athletes and the 2012 senior banquet video.

As an undergraduate at Cortland, he led the filming and editing of a SUNY Cortland football promotional video and created the season in review video for the men's lacrosse team. Beehner earned his degree in sport management.

A graduate of Jamesville-DeWitt High School in Syracuse, Beehner served as a camp counselor at the Jewish Community Center of Syracuse from 2005-11 where he worked one-on-one with children with developmental needs in association with the Autism Society of America. He provided educational and recreational activities for the children and helped develop major events and fundraisers.

Cole Dial

Recruiting Office Administrator
Reinhardt University '10

Brad and his wife, Lynne, are the parents of Ryan, who is a Syracuse University student, and Emily. They reside in Jamesville.

Tommy Powell

Assistant Provost for Student-Athlete Development

Southeastern Louisiana '92/MS '95

A proven leader in academic excellence, Tommy Powell came to Syracuse University as provost for student-athlete development in August 2013. Powell has an extensive background in guiding student-athletes to success in the classroom and in the community. He came to Syracuse from Iowa State University, where he served as the associate athletics director for academic services since 2008.

While at Iowa State, Powell implemented a standard comprehensive academic support program for all student-athletes. The program helped student-athletes to a higher cumulative GPA than the general student population from 2011 to 2013. Iowa State's 79 percent federal graduation rate in 2010 was the highest in the Big 12 and the seventh-highest among FBS schools. In 2009, Iowa State's CHAMPS/Life Skills program earned the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association National Program of Excellence Award.

Prior to his time at Iowa State, Powell was the associate director of the Louisiana State University Academic Center for Student-Athletes from 2001 to 2008. In addition to serving as the academic coordiniator for several teams, including football and basketball, Powell monitored at-risk student-athletes' academic progress toward degree and eligibility requirements. He also worked with on-campus personnel to help the facilty achieve its goals.

Powell began his academic support career at LSU where he served as an academic counselor for the College of Arts and Sciences for two years. He was the director of counseling services at River Parishes Community College from 1998 to 2000 before serving as the director of the TRIO Dissemination Partnership Program at Southeastern Louisiana University in 2000 and 2001. The program trained and supervised college faculty on the implementation of supplemental instruction.

Powell earned his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1992 and his master's degree in counseling in 1995 from Southeastern Louisiana.

Powell and his wife, Deborah, have two sons, Tyler and Ethan.

Pete Sala

University Vice President/ Chief Facilities Officer

University of Massachusetts '89

Pete Sala is the the University's vice president and chief facilities officer. In addition to overseeing all operations of SU's athletic facilities, including the Carrier Dome, Sala oversees several other departments on campus, including Campus Planning, Design and Contruction, Business and Facilities Maintenance Services, Physical Plant, Housing and Food Services Maintenance, and Energy Systems & Sustainability Management.

Sala also served as the interim director of athletics from mid-March to July 6, 2015.

Sala started at the Carrier Dome in 1982 as a production assistant and advanced through the ranks to production manager in 1988 and operations manager in 1991. He served as assistant director of facilities operations for the Carrier Dome from 1991 through June 2005 when he was promoted to associate director of athletics for facilities. In 2010, Sala assumed the role of managing director of the Carrier Dome.

At the Dome, Sala is responsible for all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the facility ,including coordinating and scheduling events, managing the box office, maintaining the budget, and overseeing all necessary building maintenance. He supervises a full-time staff of 35, a part-time staff of more than 400, and the nearly 100 students that assist in Dome operations and facility changeovers. Sala also serves as the Dome's contact person for television productions.

Along with his Carrier Dome responsibilities, Sala is also the construction manager for all athletics facility upgrades and new building projects, including recent additions such as the football weight room, five new outdoor synthetic turf fields, the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center, Ensley Athletic Center, and the remodeling of Manley Field House into a new multi-use indoor practice facility.

A 1979 graduate of Jamesville-DeWitt High School, Sala attended Morrisville College before transferring to the University of Massachusetts, where he completed its program in turf management.

He and his wife, Laurie, reside in Jamesville with their son, Jake.

David Wishart

Executive Director of Athletic Development

Syracuse University '07

David Wishart was hired as the executive director for athletic development in August 2014. A former track and field student-athlete for the Orange, he most worked in regional development for the University before joining the department. Wishart is responsible for the creation and implementation of all athletic fundraising efforts.

He transitioned to athletics after overseeing Syracuse University's regional development in New England, Chicago and Texas for a span of three years. Prior to that, he worked in Princeton University's capital giving office, focusing on the Northern California region.

Wishart graduated in 2007 from Syracuse as a dual major in finance and marketing in the Martin J. Whitman School of Management. While at SU, he was a member of the cross country and track and field teams, earning a total of nine varsity letters as a distance runner, competing mostly in the 3,000- and 5,000-meter runs. Wishart earned points in the 10,000-meter run at the 2006 BIG EAST Outdoor Track and Field Championship and was a captain of the cross country squad.

Wishart earned an MBA with a focus in sports administration from Auburn University in 2009. While at Auburn, he worked as a graduate assistant in the Tigers' athletic department.

A 2003 graduate of New Trier High School in Winnetka, Illinois, Wishart was a two-time, all-state track athlete. Born in North York, Ontario, he represented Canada at the 2004 World Junior Cross Country Championship in Brussels, Belgium.

Wishart is the executive director of Syracuse University's Varsity Club and is a former member of the board of directors for SU's Generation Orange.

2014 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME #1

Syracuse 27
vs. Villanova 26

August 29 at Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

It took two overtimes and a touchdown pass from the punter, but the Orange (1-0) walked away with a season-opening win in thrilling fashion against Villanova.

Syracuse's Riley Dixon found Kendall Moore in the end zone on a fourth-down, fake field-goal attempt in double overtime, and after a Villanova (0-1) touchdown, Robert Welsh stopped John Robertson on the potential game-winning, two-point conversion to give the Orange an exciting 27-26 victory over the Wildcats.

After both teams kicked field goals on their respective possessions in the first overtime, it looked like the Orange would attempt a field goal after Adonis Ameen-Moore was stopped just shy of the goal line on third down on the first possession of the second OT. Dixon, the holder and SU's regular punter, took the snap and rolled left, tossing to Moore in the left corner of the end zone for the go-ahead score.

Villanova took over needing a touchdown and extra point to force a third OT. After an incomplete pass and a 5-yard run, Robertson found Gary Underwood in the right side of the end zone for the touchdown. Rather than kick the extra point to tie, the Wildcats elected to go for the two-point conversion and the win. Robertson, who finished the game with 115 rushing yards on 34 attempts, looked to keep it himself again, but was quickly greeted by Welsh and a swarming Orange defense to end the game.

Syracuse found the scoreboard first in the contest, with Prince-Tyson Gulley's 65-yard touchdown scamper capping off a 96-yard drive on the team's first possession of 2014.

Villanova tied the game on a Kevin Monangai run from five yards out to open the scoring in the second quarter, but a 38-yard field goal from Ryan Norton sent the Orange into the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Coming out of halftime, Ameen-Moore powered into the end zone from two yards out to cap an 83-yard touchdown drive, giving SU its largest lead of the game at 17-7.

The Wildcats wouldn't go away as Poppy Livers returned a punt 67 yards to the house late in the third quarter. A Chris Gough field goal tied the game in the fourth as part of Villanova's nearly 12 minutes of possession time in the final period.

Gough got another opportunity late in regulation, but missed the potential game-winning, 25-yard field goal with 12 seconds left, which sent the teams to overtime.

Jarrod West and Ashton Broyld each caught five passes for the Orange, while linebacker Cameron Lynch made a game-high 15 tackles on the defensive end.

SU quarterback Austin Wilson received his first collegiate experience following the second-quarter ejection of starter Terrel Hunt. Wilson was 11-of-17 passing for 89 yards.

GAME #2

Syracuse 40
at Central Michigan 3

Sept. 13 at Kelly/Shorts Stadium • Mount Pleasant, Mich.

Behind Terrel Hunt's four touchdowns and 267 total yards, the Orange offense racked up 464 yards of offense in a dominant 40-3 win over Central Michigan.

After allowing a Central Michigan field goal on the opening possession of the game, Syracuse scored 40 unanswered points to improve to 2-0. The Chippewas (2-1) were held to just 217 yards of total offense, with 66 of that coming on their first drive.

Hunt was sharp with his arm and his legs, going 20-of-30 passing for 175 yards and one touchdown. He also rushed for 92 yards on 13 carries and three scores to become the first SU quarterback to run for three touchdowns since Donovan McNabb did so against Miami (Fla.) in 1998.

Adonis Ameen-Moore led all rushers with a career-high 106 yards. Freshman Ervin Phillips got the first nine carries of his career, rushing for 55 yards in the second half.

After a Ryan Norton field goal tied the game at 3-3 at the start of the second quarter, it was the defense that found the end zone first for the Orange. Defensive tackle and Michigan native Eric Crume sacked CMU quarterback Cooper Rush. Rush lost the ball and Marqez Hodge picked it up and ran it back 36 yards for a score.

After forcing a Central Michigan punt, Hunt led the Orange on a 13-play drive and capped it off with a 4-yard touchdown pass – his first of the season – to Brisly Estime with 1:52 to go in the half to send SU into the locker room with a 17-3 lead at the half.

The defense got the Orange on the board again at the start of the third quarter when Cameron Lynch corralled Rush in the end zone, forcing an intentional grounding call that resulted in a safety.

Hunt put the game out of reach late in the third quarter when he rushed for a pair of touchdowns just 33 seconds apart. After punching it in from 1-yard out with 3:43 remaining in the third, Rodney Williams recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff to give the Orange the ball back. Hunt took full advantage, running it in from three yards away for a 33-3 advantage.

Hunt added the exclamation point on the win with 59 seconds left in the game, scoring his career-high third rushing touchdown of the day.

In the passing game, Hunt spread the ball around to 11 different receivers who combined for 20 receptions. Ashton Broyld led the team in catches for the second game in a row, catching four balls for 42 yards.

Lynch once again led all 'Cuse tacklers, finishing with eight stops. The senior captain set career highs for tackles for loss (3.5) and sacks (2.5) in the contest.

Syracuse also didn't commit a turnover for the second straight game.

GAME #3

Syracuse	20
vs. Maryland	34

September 20 at Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

Big plays doomed the Orange against Maryland as SU lost its first game of the season to the Terps, 34-20.

The Terps (3-1) used an interception return for touchdown, a 90-yard touchdown pass, and a blocked punt to set up another score to open up an 18-point halftime lead that the Orange couldn't overcome.

The Orange (2-1) outgained the Terrapins in total yards 589-369, including a season-high 370 rushing yards. Quarterback Terrel Hunt led the way with 156 yards on 23 carries and two scores. It was the first time an SU quarterback went over 100 yards on the ground since Donovan McNabb against Miami (Fla.) in 1997.

Prince-Tyson Gulley piled up 138 yards on 14 carries, his second 100-yard game of the season, while Adonis Ameen-Moore added 68 yards on nine attempts.

Hunt completed 14-of-28 passes for 219 yards. His 375 yards of total offense tied him with Don McPherson (vs. Penn State, 1987) for eighth on the SU single-game record list.

Syracuse got on the board first with Ryan Norton's 35-yard field goal capping an 11-play, 59-yard drive on the game's first possession.

Maryland tacked on a pair of quick touchdowns, with C.J. Brown finding Marcus Leak in the back corner of the end zone for the game's first touchdown, and Brandon Ross breaking free for a 90-yard touchdown on a screen pass.

The Orange scored on its next two possessions, with Cole Murphy converting his first career field goal (a 49-yarder) and an 8-yard touchdown run by Hunt to cut Maryland's lead to 14-13.

The Terrapins responded with three unanswered scores, which were set up by their defense and special teams to head into the locker room with a 31-13 lead. Brad Craddock kicked a field goal with 12:38 to go in the half, and the Terps blocked a punt deep in SU territory on the ensuing possession that set up a Jacquille Veii touchdown run from four yards out. Just over two minutes later, William Likely intercepted Hunt's pass and took it 88 yards down the sideline for a touchdown and the final score of the half.

Coming out of the locker room, both defenses held strong with neither team scoring for more than 25 minutes. A Craddock field goal with 4:17 remaining in the game and a Hunt 2-yard run with 48 seconds left were the only points of the second half.

For the third consecutive game, Cameron Lynch led all Orange defenders with seven tackles (six solo), including a sack.

GAME #4

Syracuse	15
vs. Notre Dame	31

September 27 at MetLife Stadium • East Rutherford, N.J.

The Orange defense forced five turnovers, but it wasn't enough to upset No. 8 Notre Dame as Syracuse fell to the Fighting Irish, 31-15, in front of a MetLife Stadium college game record crowd of 76,802 in New York's College Classic.

Syracuse (2-2) had three takeaways via fumble recovery and another two by way of interceptions, including Durell Eskridge's 29-yard INT return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Syracuse finished with 429 yards of offense, its third straight game with more than 400 total yards. The Orange passed for 294 yards and added 135 on the ground. Notre Dame amassed 523 total yards.

Terrel Hunt was 22-of-38 passing for a career-high 294 yards and one interception. He added 26 yards on the ground and scored the 13th rushing touchdown of his career.

Notre Dame quarterback Everett Golson was 32-of-39 for 362 yards and four touchdowns and two interceptions. He completed 25 consecutive passes at one point, one shy of tying the FBS record held by East Carolina's Dominique Davis.

Notre Dame (4-0) jumped out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter after the teams were in a scoreless deadlock for the first 19 minutes of the game. William Fuller found the end zone on back-to-back drives for the Irish, scampering in from 23 yards out after a screen pass from Golson. The pair hooked up on the first play of the following drive on a 72-yard deep ball over the top of the Orange defense to open up a two-score lead.

Freshman kicker Cole Murphy got the Orange on the board with 3:07 to go in the second quarter with a 38-yard field goal to make the score 14-3 at the half.

Following an interception, Golson drove the Irish 60 yards in nine plays and lofted a touchdown pass to Corey Robinson to give Notre Dame a 21-3 advantage early in the second half.

The Orange found the end zone on the first play of the fourth quarter when Hunt broke free for a 7-yard touchdown run after leading the Orange on a seven-play, 72-yard drive. Murphy's extra point attempt was blocked.

Following a failed onside kick attempt by SU, Notre Dame tacked on its fourth touchdown of the night, a 13-yard scoring pass from Golson to Torii Hunter Jr. to take a 28-9 lead.

It was with 5:09 remaining that Eskridge jumped a pass in the right flat and took it 29 yards for a touchdown. It was the safety's fifth career interception and the first Orange pick-six since Keon Lyn returned an interception for a touchdown at Temple in 2012.

Kyle Brindza finished the scoring with 1:57 left when he hit a 37-yard field goal for the Fighting Irish.

GAME #5

Syracuse	6
vs. Louisville	28

October 3 at Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

Brandon Radcliff rushed for 110 yards on 23 carries and scored twice as Louisville defeated Syracuse, 28-6, in the Orange's ACC opener at the Carrier Dome. Syracuse fell to 2-3 on the season, while Louisville improved to 5-1.

The 'Cuse defense held the Cardinals to 352 yards of offense and forced a pair of turnovers, but the SU offense managed just 260 yards and 23:02 of possession time, while the Cards controlled the ball for 36:58 behind a ground game that accumulated 178 yards.

Jarrod West was the Orange's leading receiver for the second straight week, hauling in five passes for 85 yards. Josh Parris also grabbed five balls for 34 yards. Terrel Hunt was 17-of-32 passing for 201 yards and an interception.

Cameron Lynch led the Orange in tackles for the fourth time in five games with seven. He also forced a fumble and had a sack.

The Orange jumped out to an early 3-0 advantage when Cole Murphy capped an eight-play, 41-yard drive on the second 'Cuse possession.

Louisville responded on the ensuing series when Brandon Radcliff scampered in from four yards out for the game's first touchdown. The Cardinals added a safety early in the second quarter when their defense swarmed Adonis Ameen-Moore before he could get out of the end zone, pushing the lead to 9-3.

John Wallace sent the Cards into the locker room with a 12-3 advantage, hitting a 51-yard field goal with 3:42 to go in the half.

SU opened the second half with a 69-yard drive that resulted in a 24-yard field goal by Murphy to make it a one possession game. The Orange nearly scored touchdowns on a pair of trick plays on the drive, however. Prince-Tyson Gully completed a halfback pass to Ben Lewis, but the play was negated due to an ineligible player downfield. West almost connected with Lewis on a reverse-pass on the following play, but it was knocked out of Lewis' hands as he attempted to haul it in and the Orange settled for three.

The Cards answered the SU score when Radcliff ran in from 14 yards out to open up a 19-6 lead with 5:27 remaining in the third quarter.

Louisville tacked on another score when Reggie Bonnafon completed a four-yard pass to Gerald Christan with 7:45 to go in the contest. Charles Gaines closed the scoring by sacking Orange quarterback Austin Wilson causing the ball to roll out of bounds for Louisville's second safety.

Wilson finished the game at quarterback for the Orange after Hunt left the field late with an injury.

GAME #6

Syracuse	20
vs. Florida State	38

October 11 at Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

Freshmen AJ Long and Steve Ishmael connected for a pair of second-half touchdowns in Syracuse's 38-20 loss to No. 1 Florida State (6-0, 4-0 ACC) at the Carrier Dome. Ishmael had a big day for SU's receiving corps, catching touchdown passes of 22 and 35 yards and finishing with career bests in receptions (3) and yards (93). Running back Prince-Tyson Gulley tied his career high with seven catches out of the backfield for 25 yards to go with 80 yards rushing on 16 carries, but it wasn't enough to upend reigning Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston and the Seminoles, who jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead.

The Orange (2-4, 0-2 ACC) used two different signal callers in its first game without injured starter Terrel Hunt and the pair combined for 275 of the Orange's 412 yards of total offense.

Orange starting quarterback Austin Wilson was 5-of-9 passing for 89 yards and one interception. Long was 16-of-27 passing for 167 yards, two scores and two interceptions.

Winston threw for 317 yards, going 30-of-36 with three touchdowns for FSU.

The Seminoles opened the game with an eight-play, 70-yard drive that resulted in a 12-yard touchdown run by Mario Pender. After FSU settled for a field goal on its next drive, Long came out to lead the Orange offense, becoming the ninth true freshman in Syracuse history to see action under center. He led SU to three points on his first college series, as Cole Murphy hit a 21-yard field goal to bring the score to 10-3 with 12:52 left in the opening half.

On the ensuing possession, Winston found Rashad Greene on a crossing route for 44 yards to the Syracuse 5-yard line. The big gain set up a 4-yard TD pass from Winston to Pender to make it 17-3 Seminoles.

After Robert Welsh forced a Pender fumble that was recovered by John Raymon, SU got a 32-yard Murphy field goal to cut the deficit to 11 points, 17-6, with 7:18 left in the half.

Winston and FSU answered the score once again. The 2013 Heisman winner hit on all five pass attempts on the Seminoles' next drive, including a 21-yard strike to Nick O'Leary down the seam, to extend the advantage to 24-6 at the half.

After a Winston-to-Jesus Wilson touchdown pass opened the second-half scoring, the Syracuse offense quickly responded with a score of its own as Long found Ishmael on a 22-yard reception for SU's first touchdown of the game, making it 31-13 midway through the third quarter. The scoring strike made Long the first SU true freshman to throw a TD pass in his college debut.

Following a 92-yard 'Noles' scoring drive, Wilson was knocked out of the game with an injury, prompting Long to take over and he led a 75-yard scoring march which he capped by finding Ishmael on a crossing route for a 35-yard touchdown with 10:37 left to close the game's scoring.

GAME #7

Syracuse	30
at Wake Forest	7

October 18 at BB&T Field • Winston-Salem, N.C.

Syracuse scored 30 unanswered points and defeated Wake Forest, 30-7, in its first road conference game of the season. AJ Long threw for 171 yards and rushed for a touchdown to become the first SU true freshman quarterback to lead the Orange to victory in his first game as a starter.

Long's 22 completions were the most ever for an SU true freshman signal caller in one game, eclipsing the previous mark of 18 set by Todd Norley against Maryland in 1982. Syracuse's offense was perfect in the red zone, scoring on all four times it got inside the Wake 20.

Devante McFarlane led the Orange rushing attack, gaining a career-best 114 yards on 10 carries.

Defensively, Syracuse (3-4, 1-2 ACC) sacked Wake Forest quarterbacks three times and forced two turnovers. Both takeaways led to Orange scores as defensive ends Robert Welsh (interception return for a touchdown) and Micah Robinson (fumble recovery return for a touchdown) contributed 14 points.

The first quarter featured scoring drives by both teams. Wake Forest (2-5, 0-3 ACC) took the lead when quarterback John Wolford hit Cam Serigne for a 10-yard touchdown with 5:20 on the clock for its only score of the game. The play capped a 13-play, 91-yard drive. Syracuse responded with a 13-play, 69-yard drive that ended with Cole Murphy's 32-yard field goal that closed the gap to 7-3.

SU took the lead for good on its first possesion of the second quarter. Long capped a 15-play, 92-yard march with a dash to the right corner of the end zone and Syracuse claimed a 10-7 advantage with 7:50 remaining in the half. Long accounted for 80 of the 92 yards on drive. He was 5-for-7 for 56 yards passing and rushed for 24 yards during the series.

On the ensuing WF drive, Welsh picked off a Wolford pass and ran it back 42 yards for a touchdown, and Murphy's PAT gave SU a 17-7 lead with 5:05 to go in the second quarter.

Syracuse continued to pour it on in the second half, adding to its lead on a 41-yard field goal by Murphy at the 11:07 mark of the third quarter.

The Orange defense struck again on Wake Forest's next series. Brandon Reddish came on a corner blitz and drilled backup quarterback Tyler Cameron, causing a fumble. Robinson picked it up and ran it back 51 yards for the touchdown and a 27-7 Orange lead.

An 86-yard run by McFarlane set up a 27-yard field goal by Murphy that closed the scoring late in the third. McFarlane's dash tied for the third-longest rush in school history.

The defense did the rest, not allowing a first down on Wake's last five possessions to help the Orange snap its four-game losing streak.

GAME #8

Syracuse	6
at Clemson	16

October 25 at Memorial Stadium • Clemson, S.C.

Syracuse (3-5, 1-3 ACC) forced four turnovers and held No. 21 Clemson to 16 points, but it wasn't enough to take down the Tigers (6-2, 5-1 ACC) at Memorial Stadium. The Orange fell, 16-6, dropping its first road game of the season.

Prince-Tyson Gulley led the Orange offense, rushing for 77 yards on 17 carries. Wide receiver Ashton Broyld hauled in four passes for 49 yards in his first game back after missing the last four contests due to injury.

Linebacker Cameron Lynch paced the Orange in tackles for the sixth time this season. He had 10 stops, two of which went for losses, to record his second double-digit tackle game of the year.

The Tigers' defense held SU to 170 yards of total offense, while Clemson racked up 375 yards of offense and possessed the ball for nearly 35 minutes.

'Cuse took a 3-0 lead after Cole Murphy's 43-yard field goal capped a 61-yard drive near the end of the first quarter. The kick was set up by a Brandon Reddish interception. It was one of two times Syracuse picked off Clemson quarterback Cole Stoudt. Darius Kelly intercepted another Stoudt pass in the third quarter.

After a Tigers' field goal evened the score at three with just over four minutes remaining in the half, the Orange again turned a takeaway into points. Dyshawn Davis stripped Stoudt with 1:12 to go before intermission, which set up Murphy for a career-long field goal try of 50 yards, which he hit to give the Orange a 6-3 lead at the intermission.

In the third quarter, turnovers on back-to-back plays by both teams resulted in Clemson driving inside the Orange 10-yard line. However, SU's defense stiffened as Lynch stuffed Wayne Gallman on third-and-goal from the 2-yard line and the Tigers settled for an 18-yard Ammon Lakip field goal that tied the score at 6-6.

A little more than three minutes later, Lakip connected on his third field goal of the night to give the Tigers their first lead (9-6) with 3:24 to go in the third quarter.

Clemson upped its margin to 10 on the second play of the fourth quarter as Stoudt hit Stanton Seckinger on a 19-yard pass for the game's first touchdown and a 16-6 advantage.

Two possessions later, Murphy missed a 42-yard field goal attempt that would have made it a one-score game. After the Murphy miss, Clemson turned to its running game, led by Gallman's 101 yards on 28 carries, to use up the remaining 8:17 and win its seventh consecutive game at Memorial Stadium.

GAME #9

Syracuse	17
vs. NC State	24

November 1 at Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

The Orange (3-6, 1-4 ACC) led late in the third quarter, but an 82-yard interception return for a touchdown by freshman defensive end Pharoah McKever powered NC State to a 24-17 victory in the Carrier Dome.

Down 9-0 late in the second quarter, the Orange rattled off 14 unanswered points to take a 14-9 advantage. McKever's touchdown in the third quarter turned the tide and Syracuse ultimately never retook the lead.

For the second time in 2014, and third time in his collegiate career, wide receiver Jarrod West topped the 100-yard receiving mark, finishing the day with a career-high 161 yards on seven receptions.

Freshman quarterback AJ Long was 22-for-42 for a career-best 307 yards passing. It marked the first 300-yard passing game by a true freshman in program history. Long threw two touchdown passes in the contest, which matched his personal best.

NC State (5-4, 1-4 ACC) opened the contest with a nine-play, 52-yard drive that culminated with a 43-yard field goal from senior placekicker Niklas Sade.

Following two more second-quarter Sade field goals, Syracuse took over at its own 4-yard line with 3:38 remaining in the half, down by nine. The Orange went 96 yards in 12 plays, capped by a 15-yard touchdown pass from Long to Ben Lewis with 15 seconds to go in the opening half to close the gap to 9-7.

SU carried the momentum from its late first-half touchdown into the third quarter. Freshman wide receiver Steve Ishmael hauled in a 25-yard touchdown pass from Long to complete a 10-play, 75-yard drive to open the second half. The touchdown gave the Orange its first lead in the contest, 14-9, with 11:38 to go in the period.

After an NC State punt, SU was once again on the march. Deep in Wolfpack territory, Long was intercepted over the middle by McKever and he took it back 82 yards for the touchdown. Matt Dayes added the two-point conversions to make the score 17-14.

Syracuse had an opportunity to slice into the deficit late in the fourth quarter, but Long fumbled on his own 35-yard line with 3:54 remaining in regulation. NC State took over and Jacoby Brissett completed an 18-yard touchdown pass to running back Shadrach Thornton to give the Wolfpack a 24-14 advantage.

On the ensuing possession, the Orange moved quickly down the field to set up a 50-yard field goal attempt for freshman placekicker Cole Murphy. Murphy connected for his second 50-yarder in as many games to cut the NC State lead to 24-17 with 17 seconds left.

Syracuse successfully recovered the ensuing onside kick, giving the team one last chance. Long launched a deep pass in the final seconds, but it was intercepted by freshman safety Josh Jones at the NC State 8-yard line, ending any hope of a last-second comeback.

GAME #10

Syracuse	10
vs. Duke	27

November 8 at Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

After the Orange (3-7, 1-5 ACC) tied the game and held No. 22 Duke scoreless in the third quarter, the Blue Devils (8-1, 4-1 ACC) pulled ahead with 17 points in the fourth to down Syracuse, 27-10.

It was a dual effort under center for the Orange with Austin Wilson getting the starting nod and finishing 11-of-19 for 68 yards through the air, while Mitch Kimble completed 6-of-13 passes for 37 yards. Ben Lewis was the top target for the two field generals. Lewis finished with a career-high six receptions for 30 yards. Jarrod West and Ervin Phillips each made four catches on the day, with West leading the corps with 45 yards receiving.

Kimble added 42 yards rushing on 10 carries, including an 8-yard, third-quarter touchdown run. Prince-Tyson Gulley finished with nine carries for 42 yards to become the 22nd Orange runner to top 2,000 career yards. Ervin Philips chipped in with six rushes for 36 yards.

Durrell Eskridge and Darius Kelly led the secondary with seven tackles each, while Micah Robinson tied for the team tackle lead with seven stops up front for a defense that held the Blue Devils to 259 yards of offfense, 163 yards less than their season average of 422 coming into the game. Rookie Zaire Franklin added six tackles in his first start at middle linebacker.

Down 10-3 at the start of the second half, Kimble led the Orange on a nine-play, 67-yard touchdown drive to tie the game at 10 with 5:18 left in the third quarter. Kimble was 2-for-2 for 28 yards and rushed four times for 16 yards during the series, including an 8-yard scurry into the end zone for his first career touchdown.

Following Kimble's score, the two sides exchanged punts until Brandon Reddish interecepted Duke QB Anthony Boone on the SU 2-yard line early in the fourth quarter. However, Syracuse couldn't get out of the shadow of its goal line, and Riley Dixon was forced to punt the ball to Jamison Crowder who ran it back 52 yards for a touchdown and a 17-10 Duke advantage.

On SU's next possession, the Blue Devils stopped the Orange on a fake punt and took over at the SU 32. Boone and the Duke offense capitalized on the excellent field position as Ross Martin connected on a 34-yard field goal to push the advantage to 20-10.

Duke put the game out of reach shortly thereafter. Breon Borders intercepted Wilson for the second time on the next series. Boone took advantage, finding Issac Blakeney for his second touchdown reception of the game, this time from 54 yards out, to close the scoring with 7:13 to play.

Crowder led the Blue Devils with a game-high nine catches for 58 yards in addition to his punt return touchdown. Blakeney finished with three catches for 92 yards and two scores.

GAME #11

Syracuse	7
at Pitt	30

November 22 at Heinz Field • Pittsburgh, Pa.

Freshman wide receiver Steve Ishmael recorded a career high in receiving yards and Ron Thompson scored his first career touchdown in Syracuse's 30-7 setback at Pitt on Saturday, Nov. 22 at Heinz Field.

Freshman quarterback AJ Long was 10-for-19 for 149 yards and an interception. His favorite target was Ishmael, who finished with six receptions for 97 yards. George Morris II rushed for a team-high 34 yards, while Long recorded 30 yards on the ground, his highest total of the season. However, it was Thompson, Syracuse's starting defensive tackle, that was responsible for the team's only points. He plunged into the end zone from a yard out in the third quarter.

Defensively, Zaire Franklin led the Orange with a career-high 10 tackles in his second consecutive start.

The Panthers (5-6, 3-4 ACC) appeared to have taken the lead on the opening kickoff, but Pitt was called for holding, negating Tyler Boyd's 96-yard return for a touchdown.

Syracuse dodged another bullet as the Panthers nearly took the lead again on their second drive of the game. Pitt advanced to the Syracuse 24-yard line, but Chris Blewitt's 42-yard field goal attempt was wide left. The Orange took over, but Prince Tyson-Gulley fumbled on the first play from scrimmage, giving the Panthers the ball deep in Syracuse territory. Four plays later, James Conner ran it in from the one to give the Panthers a 7-0 lead with 5:11 left in the opening quarter.

The Orange (3-8, 1-6 ACC) responded with one of its longest drives of the half, but it ended when Long's pass to Ishmael in the end zone was intercepted by Lafayette Pitts. Blewitt missed another field goal attempt, this time from 44 yards, on the ensuing Pitt possession, but he was able to convert a 46-yard try with 5:10 left in the second quarter to give the Panthers a 10-0 lead.

Pitt added to its advantage with an 80-yard scoring drive capped by Chad Voytik's 11-yard touchdown pass to Dontez Ford. Pass interference and personal foul penalties aided the Panthers as they took a 17-0 lead with 47 seconds remaining in the half.

On the opening possession of the third quarter, Syracuse drove 75 yards on 10 plays for its only points of the game. The drive was capped by Thompson, who dove into the end zone from the one for his first touchdown. Cole Murphy tacked on the extra point to cut the deficit to 17-7.

The Panthers answered Thompson's score with a field goal on their next drive, and then scored on the first play of the fourth quarter when Voytik threw a screen to Boyd, who took it 49 yards for a touchdown and a 27-7 Pitt advantage.

After an SU three-and-out, Blewitt converted a 46-yard field goal to put the Panthers up 30-7 with 9:42 to play. Syracuse was able to get a first down on its next possession, but the drive stalled at its own 47-yard line and the Orange was forced to punt. The Panthers took over and ran out the final 7:01 to earn its second straight win in the series.

GAME #12

Syracuse	7
at Boston College	28

November 29 at Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, Mass.

The Syracuse defense held Boston College (7-5, 4-4 ACC) to 120 yards less than its season rushing average, but the Eagles outscored the Orange 21-0 over the last three quarters to post a 28-7 win in the regular-season finale for both teams on Saturday, Nov. 29 at Alumni Stadium.

Syracuse senior linebackers Cameron Lynch and Dyshawn Davis each made 10 tackles to lead an Orange defense that recorded a season-best 11 tackles for loss and limited BC to 142 yards rushing on 49 attempts (2.9 yards per carry). In the process, Syracuse (3-9, 1-7 ACC) bottled up Eagles quarterback Tyler Murphy, who ran for a season-low 20 yards after entering the game second among FBS quarterbacks at 96.3 rushing yards per contest.

Jarrod West caught five passes for 45 yards on the day to pace the Syracuse offense and he finished his career fifth on the school's all-time receptions list (134) and seventh in career receiving yards (1,836).

The Eagles didn't waste any time grabbing the lead. Myles Willis returned the opening kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to give them a 7-0 advantage 12 seconds into the contest.

Syracuse answered the score late in the first quarter. After a 10-yard punt return by Ritchy Desir to the Boston College 43 gave the offense a short field, Ervin Philips broke free for a 16-yard run on first down. A 9-yard completion from AJ Long to Philips on the next play had the Orange in business at the Eagles' 18-yard line. Four plays later, Long scampered into the end zone from four yards out to cap the drive, and Cole Murphy added the point after to make it 7-7 with 1:43 left in the opening period.

Boston College looked to pull ahead in the latter stages of the first half after driving to the Syracuse 10, but a pair of tackles behind the line of scrimmage by Lynch forced BC kicker Mike Knoll to try a 36-yard field goal. He pushed it wide and the score remained tied with 4:48 to play in the second quarter.

After Syracuse went three-and-out on the ensuing series, the Eagles had another chance to regain the lead and this time they took advantage. Murphy connected with Sherman Alston on a 28-yard scoring pass with 1:10 to go in the half to put the home team in front, 14-7, at the intermission.

Two plays into the second half, Mike Strizak picked off Long deep in Orange territory to set up a Jon Hilliman 7-yard touchdown run that extended the BC margin to 21-7.

The Orange struggled to get anything going offensively and punted on its next three possessions. That set the stage for BC running back Tyler Rouse, who put the game out of reach with 8:43 to play by breaking off a 42-yard touchdown run to close the scoring.

Long finished the day 7-for-18 passing for 59 yards. Prince-Tyson Gulley led the Orange ground game with 35 yards on seven carries.

Murphy was 13-of-17 for 160 yards and one touchdown through the air for the Eagles. Rouse toted the ball nine times for a game-high 59 yards.

HISTORY

1889
On Nov. 23, Syracuse traveled to Rochester for its first intercollegiate football game. Wearing pink and blue uniforms, SU lost 36-0 to finish the year 0-1.

1890
Orange was adopted as the school color and Syracuse's athletic teams are henceforth known as "Orange" or "Orangemen." SU defeated the Syracuse Athletic Association 14-0 in the season opener for its first football victory, en route to a 7-4 record. Bobby Winston became the program's first head coach.

1891
Stephen Crane, author of the Civil War classic "Red Badge of Courage," was a member of an SU squad that finished 4-7.

1892
The only season in SU football history with no wins when at least two games were played. The Orange went 0-8-1 under coach Jordan C. Wells.

1893
Without a coach, the Orange finished the season with a 4-9-1 record. SU posted triumphs against Syracuse High School, Hamilton, Onondaga Academy and Cazenovia.

1894
In his only season as Syracuse's head coach, George H. Bond led the Orange to a 6-5 record.

1895
The Orange secured its first real home field as SU went from playing in parks throughout the city of Syracuse to playing at The Oval, which was a space located behind the Hall of Languages. The Orange recorded its first victory against rival Colgate, winning by the score of 4-0.

1896
The Orange played its first opponent from outside of New York state, losing to Williams College (Mass.), 24-6.

1897
The Colgate "Hoodoo" was born when a newspaper reporter sympathetic to the Raiders' cause tackled an SU player who was on his way to scoring the winning touchdown. The game ended in a 6-6 tie.

1898
The Orange posted an 8-2-1 record, outscoring its opponents 192-69 under the direction of head coach Frank E. Wade.

1899
SU finished 4-4 in the final year of head coach Frank E. Wade's three-year tenure.

1900
Edwin Sweetland, a Cornell grad, was hired as head football coach and to start the crew program. He later coached against SU as the head coach at Colgate.

1901
Success builds for the football program as the Orange finished the season with a 7-1 record, losing one game to Lafayette, 5-0.

1902
A 23-0 shutout of rival Colgate was an important win for the Orange as it cruised to a 6-2-1 season. Other big wins included victories against the Onondaga Indians, Amherst, and Williams.

1903
The football program gained momentum as its budget increased to $5,500. The raise brought the overall SU sports budget to $10,400.

The Associated Press writers' poll was introduced in 1936. The poll ranked the top 20 teams in the nation until 1961, when it was revamped to include just the top 10 teams. The top 20 format returned in 1968 and was expanded to include the top 25 in 1989.

The coaches' poll was a service of United Press International (UPI) from 1950 to 1990. The poll ranked the top 20 teams in the nation benfore it was converted to a top-25 format. From 1991 to 1996, the coaches' poll was run by USA Today/CNN, which formerly had its own poll of writers and broadcasters. In 1997, USA Today joined with ESPN to sponsor the coaches' poll.

The Orange put 144 points on the board against Manhattan, a team record that still stands today.

1905
The Orange posted six shutouts as it finished the season with an overall record of 8-3.

1906
Head coach Frank J. O'Neill led the Orange to a 6-3 record in SU's final season playing in The Oval.

1907
The Orange opened Archbold Stadium, a 20,000-seat facility, with a 28-0 victory against Hobart. The stadium provided the Orange with one of the finest facilities of its time. Once called "the eighth wonder of the world," Archbold was just the third concrete stadium built in the United States. A 22-0 victory against Hamilton was the program's 100th win.

1908
Syracuse played its first game against a Western Conference (now Big Ten) foe, beating Michigan, 28-4. Marquis (Bill) Horr became SU's first All-America selection in head coach Howard Jones' only season as SU's leader. In 1951, Jones and Frank O'Neill were the first Syracuse people inducted into the College Football Hall Fame.

1909
SU posted a 4-5-1 record during the first of two seasons for head coach T.A.D. Jones. He finished with an overall record of 9-9-2.

1910
In its 22nd season of intercollegiate football, SU posted a 5-4-1 record.

1911
First-year head coach C. DeForest Cummings led the Orange to a 5-3-2 season.

1912
After opening the season with a 12-0 victory against in-state rival Hobart, SU finished with a 4-5 record in C. DeForest Cummings' last season as head coach.

1913
Coach Frank (Buck) O'Neill returned to coach the Orange after leading the program to a winning season in 1907. He continued to coach at Syracuse for five more years.

1914
SU scored 81 points in a victory against Hamilton, a point total that ranks fourth on the Orange record list.

1915
SU's first powerhouse team finished 9-1-2, recording seven shutouts and outscoring the opposition, 331-16. SU was invited to the Rose Bowl to play Washington, but declined because an earlier West Coast trip (the first by an Eastern school) to Oregon State had used up the travel budget. SU guards Christopher Schlacter and Harold White were both named All-Americans.

1916
In his only season as head coach, William Hollenback led SU to a 5-4 record.

1917
All-America tackle Alfred Cobb captained the Orange squad to an 8-1-1 record.

1918
Joe Alexander earned his first of three consecutive first-team All-America honors. He and Floyd Little, who was an All-American from 1964-1966, are only two Syracuse players with three first-team All-America nods. Tackle Louis Usher also earned All-America recognition in 1918. Alexander played in the NFL as center for the Rochester Jeffersons, Milwaukee Badgers, and New York Giants.

1919
All-American Joe Alexander and the Orange finished 8-3 in the last year of Frank (Buck) O'Neill's tenure as SU's head coach. O'Neill was the sideline leader for a total of eight years (1906-07, 1913-15, 1917-19).

1920
Team captain Joe Alexander received All-America honors for the third straight year. He and first-year head coach John Meehan led the Orange to a 6-2-1 record. Alexander was enshrined in the Collge Football Hall of Fame in 1954. Tackle Bertrand Gulick also received All-America recognition.

1921
Gifford Zimmerman became the first SU player to wear the fabled No. 44. The number remained in circulation until the 2005 season when it was retired.

1922
The Penn State series started with a scoreless tie in a game played at the Polo Grounds in New York City. Roy Simmons Sr. was the squad's quarterback, marking the beginning of a relationship between the Simmons family and SU athletics that continues today. Roy Simmons III is the director of operations for the Orange men's lacrosse program. After his playing career concluded in 1924, Simmons Sr. coached the Orange lacrosse and boxing squads, as well as served as an assistant football coach. Roy Simmons Jr. was SU's men's lacrosse coach from 1971 through 1998, taking the reins of the program from his father when he retired in 1970.

1923
All-America end Evander (Pete) MacRae led the Orange defense to a school-record seven consecutive shutouts.

1924
Syracuse defeated Boston College, 10-0, for the 200th victory in program history.

1925
Clarence Thomas became the first quarterback to wear the storied No. 44 jersey. He led the team to an 8-1-1 record.

Ernie Davis: 1961 Heisman Winner

In 1961, running back Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, given to the outstanding intercollegiate football player in the United States. Davis edged out Bill Ferguson of Ohio State in what at the time was the closest vote in Heisman history (824 points to 771). Davis thus became the first African-American and the only Syracuse player to win the coveted award. He died of leukemia in 1963, never getting the chance to realize his dream of teaming up with former SU great Jim Brown in the Cleveland Browns' backfield. Davis' trophy is kept on display in the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex.

Orange Top Five Heisman Trophy Finishes

1998	Donovan McNabb (5th place) Winner - Ricky Williams, Texas
1987	Don McPherson (2nd place) Winner - Tim Brown, Notre Dame
1967	Larry Csonka (4th place) Winner - Gary Beban, UCLA
1966	Floyd Little (5th place) Winner - Steve Spurrier, Florida
1965	Floyd Little (5th place) Winner - Mike Garrett, USC
1961	Ernie Davis (Winner)
1956	Jim Brown (5th place) Winner - Paul Hornung, Notre Dame

1926
Vic Hanson earned All-America honors in football and captained the basketball team to the national championship. Hanson is the only athlete enshrined in both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame.

1927
In his first year as head coach, Lew Andreas led the Orange to a 5-3-2 record.

1928
After a 3-0 start, the Orange finished the season with a 4-4-1 record.

1929
SU played the first night game in the East, beating Hobart, 77-0. Lew Andreas, who was SU's basketball coach from 1924 through 1950, completes a three-year stint as the football coach. Andreas also served as SU's director of athletics from 1937 through 1964.

1930
Vic Hanson returned to SU to coach for three years after playing briefly for a New York Yankees farm team, highlighting his multi-faceted athletic ability.

1931
The Orange outscored its opponents 238-56 en route to a 7-1-1 record.

1932
The program enjoyed its 250th victory, a 27-6 win against Oglethorpe.

1933
After a 3-0 start, the Orange closed the season with a 4-4 record under the direction of fourth-year head coach Vic Hanson.

Wilmeth Sidat-Singh

One of the greatest student-athletes in Syracuse University history, Wilmeth Sidat-Singh '39 was also an individual of extraordinary courage. Sidat-Singh starred for the Orange football and basketball squads, despite being subjected to racial bias. After earning his degree in zoology from SU, Sidat-Singh played professional basketball. The NFL ban on African-American players eliminated pro football as an option.

The University honored the memory of Sidat-Singh by retiring Singh's No. 19 basketball jersey in 2005.

In 1943, Sidat-Singh passed the entrance exam for the U.S. Army Air Corps and was assigned to the only pilot training program for African Americans: the Tuskegee Airmen. Just days after earning his wings, Sidat-Singh was on a training mission when the engine of his P-40 failed, forcing him to parachute into Lake Huron. His body was found a week later. First Lieutenant Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, U.S. Army Air Corps, is buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

"Wilmeth Sidat-Singh was a pioneer in everything that he did," said SU Assistant Vice President for Program Development Larry Martin. "He was a remarkable individual, a two-sport star and an outstanding student. Until now, his story has only been known to a few."

An All-New York City basketball player at DeWitt Clinton High School, Sidat-Singh led his Bronx team to the Public School Athletic League (PSAL) title in 1933-34. Despite his talent and credentials, Syracuse University was the only school to offer him a scholarship. At SU, the six-foot, 190-pound Sidat-Singh led the Orange to three straight winning seasons.

A hero and leader on campus, Sidat-Singh also joined the football team in his sophomore year after assistant coach Roy Simmons Sr. spotted him throwing a 55-yard pass, flat-footed, in an intramural game. He was subject to the indignities plaguing many African-Americans when the Orange traveled to Southern states to play. Officials from some of the schools prevented Sidat-Singh from taking the field, citing segregation laws. He was banned from the 1937 game at Maryland, which the Orange lost 13-0. One year later, when the teams met in Archbold Stadium, Sidat-Singh helped SU to a 53-0 triumph against the Terrapins. He played halfback in Syracuse's single-wing offense, a position similar to today's quarterback.

In an article for The Syracusan, Don Hallock '38 described the pre-med zoology major as "an omnivorous reader … more interested in a sheepskin than a pigskin."

Sidat-Singh's Syracuse football teammates included Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty '39, the legendary Michigan State head coach, and Marty Glickman '39, the radio voice of New York City sports for half a century.

In 1938, legendary sportswriter Grantland Rice came to Syracuse to scout Rose Bowl-bound Cornell. After watching Sidat-Singh engineer a stunning 19-17 upset for Syracuse, which included six passes for 150 yards and three touchdowns in the final nine minutes, Rice ranked Sidat-Singh with Sid Luckman and Sammy Baugh as the greatest throwing arms of the era.

After graduation, Sidat-Singh played with the Syracuse Reds, one of the few racially integrated professional basketball teams of the barnstorming era. On December 1, 1939, the Reds defeated the Original Celtics, 40-37, in Watertown, N.Y. Sidat-Singh scored 14 points. A year later, he joined the Harlem Renaissance (or "Rens"), the most famous of the African American barnstorming teams.

Sidat-Singh was born Wilmeth Webb, the son of Elias Webb, a Washington pharmacist, and Pauline Webb. Both of his parents were African Americans. Elias Webb died when Wilmeth was a child. Pauline Webb then married Dr. Samuel Sidat-Singh, then a medical student who had come to the United States to study at Howard University. Dr. Sidat-Singh adopted Wilmeth and moved the family to West 135th Street in Harlem, where he practiced family medicine for many years.

All-America tackle James Steen led the Orange to a 6-2 record.

1935
Senior guard Ed Jontos became Syracuse's first pro football draft pick when he was selected 45th overall by the New York Giants in the 1936 draft.

1936
Vic Hanson concluded his Syracuse coaching tenure with a seven-year record of 33-21-5.

1937
Ossie Solem succeeded Vic Hanson as head coach. He brought with him an assistant named Charles (Bud) Wilkinson, who later established a dynasty at Oklahoma. Wilkinson was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1969.

1938
Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, one of the first African-American quarterbacks to play college football, led SU to a stunning 19-17 comeback win against Cornell. Among Sidat-Singh's teammates were Olympic sprinter and legendary sports announcer Marty Glickman and the great Michigan State coach Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. Sidat-Singh's SU basketball jersey was retired in February 2005.

1939
Syracuse set a defensive team record as the Orange held opponents to a 33.3 percent pass completion rate.

1940
Under head coach Ossie Solem, SU beat NYU, 47-13, on Oct. 12. The game was played in Yankee Stadium in the Bronx in front of 8,000 people.

1941
The Syracuse special teams unit set a school record for punt return yards (662).

1942
Winning the first five games of the season, the Orange was ranked as high as 15th as it went on to finish with a 6-3 record.

1943
Syracuse University suspended intercollegiate sports due to World War II.

1944
The Orange finished with a 2-4-1 record, including playing a game against Boston College at historic Fenway Park in Boston.

1945
Ossie Solom concluded his eight-year SU coaching stint, guiding the Orange to a 1-6 record. He had a 30-27-6 overall mark.

1946
Future College Football Hall of Fame coach Clarence L. "Biggie" Munn served as the Orange head coach. Munn went on to coach at Michigan State. A member of Munn's coaching staff, Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty, was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, in 1984. The Orange program enjoyed its 300th overall win, a 28-7 victory against Temple.

1947
Reaves Baysinger became head coach and promptly changed the Orange's uniform from a blue jersey with orange numbers to white to go along with khaki moleskin pants. He led SU to a 3-6 record.

1948
In the final year for head coach Reaves Baysinger, the Orange posted a 1-8 record.

1949
Ben Schwartzwalder was hired as head coach following five consecutive losing seasons.

1950
Avatus Stone set the school record with three interceptions against Penn State. Two others (Tommy Myers, 1970 and Markus Paul, 1985) have since tied that mark.

1951
In a game against LaFayette, the SU defense forced a school-record nine turnovers.

1952
Tackle Robert Fleck earned All-America honors, leading Syracuse to a 7-2 record and its first bowl game. SU lost to Alabama, 61-6, in the Orange Bowl. Future Pro Football Hall of Fame center Jim Ringo concluded his three-year SU career.

1953
Robert Fleck moved to guard and earned his second consecutive All-America award as the Orange finished 5-3-1 during head coach Ben Schwartzwalder's fifth season at the helm.

1954
A halfback from Long Island, well down on the preseason depth chart, was issued jersey No. 44. His name was Jim Brown.

1955
The Syracuse defense shined as it only allowed 35 pass completions on 95 attempts – still SU records for the fewest completions and attempts by opponents in team history. Against Army, the Orange did not allow a completion.

1956
With a bowl bid on the line in the regular-season finale versus Colgate, Jim Brown scored a then-NCAA record 43 points in SU's 61-7 victory. The Orange finished the regular season with a 7-1 record, earning an invitation to the Cotton Bowl, where it lost to TCU, 28-27. Brown broke the SU rushing record with 986 yards and earned first-team All-America honors. He went on to a Hall of Fame career with the NFL's Cleveland Browns after he was the sixth overall selection by Cleveland in the 1957 NFL Draft. In 1995, Brown was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

1957
Syracuse recorded the 350th win in the program's history with a 26-9 victory against Nebraska.

1958
Tackle Ronald Luciano earned All-America honors, leading the Orange to an 8-2 record and an Orange Bowl appearance. SU lost to Oklahoma, 21-6.

1959 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
Undefeated, untied, and national champions, the Orange capped off an 11-0 season with its first bowl win, a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse enjoyed its finest time on the gridiron, pulverizing its foes both offensively and defensively. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 games. On offense, the Orange averaged 451 yards per game. Three SU student-athletes earned All-America honors, including guard Roger Davis who was the seventh overall selection by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft.

1960
Ernie Davis earned the first of two All-America awards playing halfback for the 7-2 Orange. The Philadelphia Eagles selected fullback Art Baker with the 14th overall pick in the 1961 NFL Draft.

The Syracuse Eight

In 1970, a group of Syracuse University football team members, known today as the "Syracuse 8," showed extraordinary courage and commitment by calling for the equal treatment of student-athletes and a diverse coaching staff. As talented scholarship athletes, these men were aware of the potential consequences of their actions. Despite this risk, they took a strong, principled stand. When their calls for action were not honored, they made the difficult decision to leave the team and give up a game they loved and the potential professional success it could bring.

Although mistakenly dubbed the "Syracuse 8" by media reports in 1970, the group included nine individuals. They are Gregory Allen '72, Richard Bulls '73, John Godbolt '73, Dana Harrell '71, G '73, John Lobon '73, Clarence "Bucky" McGill '72, A. Alif Muhammad '71, Duane Walker '80 and Ron Womack '71.

At a special ceremony in October 2006, former Syracuse University Chancellor and President Nancy Cantor awarded these former Orange football players SU's Chancellor's Medal.

"These events celebrate the courage and determination of the 'Syracuse 8' to stand up for their values and principles, even in the face of great personal sacrifice," Cantor said. "These alumni are emblematic of the values we want for our students and for ourselves when we face critical issues of justice and equality. Their courage 36 years ago stands today as a beacon and lesson for all of us as we continue to strive for a more just university, community and society."

The group was also recognized at halftime of the Syracuse football game against Louisville. During the ceremony the group was presented with their SU letterman's jackets, which they never received after leaving the team.

In 2005, several of the players returned to campus for a panel discussion on the events surrounding the "Syracuse 8." Following that event, alumnus Art Monk '80 led an effort to create a special University committee to consider, and ultimately plan, a formal SU recognition and honoring of the group. Committee members included Monk, Gregory Allen '72, Dave Bing '66, Peter J. Estrada '82, Daryl Gross, Carmen Harlow '78, John L. Johnson, Floyd Little '67, John Lobon '73, Larry Martin, Angela Y. Robinson '78, Diane M. Weathers '71, Barry L. Wells and Roosevelt R. "Rick" Wright Jr. G'93.

Monk, Robinson and Weathers were among those who participated in the 2006 ceremony.

Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African American to receive college football's most prestigious award. Along the way, he broke Jim Brown's SU career rushing record and led the Orange to a Liberty Bowl win against Miami (Fla.). Less than two years later, Davis died of leukemia. Davis was the top pick in the 1962 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins (who traded his rights to Cleveland) and in the 1962 AFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. In 1979, Davis was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.

1962
Ben Schwartzwalder was on the East coaching staff for the Coaches All-American game that included two of his players, Ernie Davis and John Brown. End Walt Sweeney was a first-round selection by the AFL's San Diego Chargers in the 1963 draft.

The Legend of Archbold Stadium

Upon its completion in 1907, Archbold Stadium was touted as the "Greatest Athletic Arena in America." Designed to resemble the Roman Coliseum and to never become outdated, Archbold Stadium was a trademark of Syracuse Orange football.

"Athletic contests may come and go but the recently completed concrete stadium at Syracuse University will endure forever," stated Dr. Charles Burrows of Technical World Magazine upon viewing Archbold Stadium in 1909.

From 1907 until 1978 the Orange battled for victory inside the walls of Archbold Stadium. It served as the site for many thrilling Orange victories, numerous record-breaking performances – and even a few heart-breaking defeats. But the history of this legendary stadium begins with the vision and generosity of a single man.

John D. Archbold's gift of $600,000 to the University in 1905 made stadium construction a reality. Archbold was the vice president of Standard Oil and the president of SU's Board of Trustees from 1892 until his death in 1916. The stadium bared his name.

Construction of the stadium began in September of 1906 and was completed only 10 months later. A natural hollow on the west side of the SU campus provided the perfect site (the Carrier Dome currently occupies this area). Archbold Stadium was situated at a great height, which granted fans of that day a clear view of downtown Syracuse, Onondaga Lake and the beautiful Onondaga Valley.

The stadium's front entrance defined the character of Archbold. Located on the west end, the main entrance consisted of an impressive 40-foot cement arch and two epic towers, which extended high above the archway. On the north side of the stadium, Archbold's bowl-like design enabled fans to arrive in horse-drawn carriages and enter directly at the promenade level.

Upon its completion, critics believed the stadium was impractical and argued that it would never be filled. Originally designed to accommodate a crowd of 20,000, Archbold rarely reached capacity in its initial years, but twice that number squeezed into the stadium in the 1950s and 1960s. In the end more than 6 million fans attended the classic stadium to watch football and past critics were silenced.

In addition to providing the University and its fans with an aesthetically beautiful stadium, Archbold granted the Orange football team a distinct home-field advantage. The Orange went 265-112-20 all-time at Archbold. From 1915 to 1927, Syracuse achieved a home record of 61-10-6. Then, during the 11-year stretch from 1958-1968, SU won 47 and lost only six games there.

For 71 years Archbold Stadium treated fans to the best that collegiate football had to offer. It began in 1907 with the 'sound drubbing' of Hobart, 28-0. It ended in 1978 with an incredible 20-17 victory against nationally-ranked Navy.

In the final game at Archbold Stadium a freshman named Joe Morris stole the show. Facing a tough Navy defense, Morris carried the ball 31 times for 203 yards. Morris helped the Orange upset the second-ranked Midshipmen, 20-17. And more importantly, the Orange sent Archbold Stadium out in style.

- Joe Reimer

1963
The Orange finished the season ranked 12th in the coaches' poll with an 8-2 record. John Mackey began his NFL career as a tight end for the Baltimore Colts, where he eventually played in two Super Bowls. In 1992, Mackey was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1964
Sophomore halfback Floyd Little, who was recruited to SU by 1961 Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, earned All-America honors in his first season. Center Patrick Killorin also received All-America accolades. The program celebrated its 400th win — a 38-6 victory against Kansas.

1965
All-Americans Floyd Little (halfback), Charles Brown (defensive halfback) and Patrick Killorin (center) led the Orange to a 7-4 record, including a 13-10 loss to LSU in the Sugar Bowl. The Tigers kicked a field goal with 3:50 left for the winning points. Jim Nance rushed for 70 yards in the loss, while Little had 46.

1966
Halfback Floyd Little and fullback Larry Csonka, the greatest one-two running punch in the Orange annals, led the team to an 8-3 record and a Gator Bowl berth. Little set an SU bowl game record with 216 yards, and Csonka added 114, in the 18-12 loss to Tennessee. Little, Csonka and tackle Gary Bugenhagen earned All-America honors. The AFL's Denver Broncos selected Little with the sixth overall pick in the 1967 league draft. In 1983, Little was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, an honor followed by Csonka's induction in 1989. In 1987, Csonka was also enshrined into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

1967
Larry Csonka earned All-America honors for the second year in a row after rushing for 1,127 yards and eight touchdowns. The AFL's Miami Dolphins selected Csonka with the eighth overall pick in the 1968 draft. Csonka was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

1968
Defensive halfback Anthony Kyasky earned All-America honors for the 6-4 Orange. Defensive tackle Art Thoms was the 22nd overall selection by the Oakland Raiders in the AFL Draft.

1969
Against Penn State, Greg Allen set the record for the most individual punt return yards with 172.

1970
Facing a boycott by a group of nine African-American student-athletes, Syracuse was outscored 100-29 in its first three games, but rebounded to win six of the next seven games. The 'Syracuse Eight,' as the group was named by the media, sat out the season calling for the equal treatment of student-athletes and a diverse coaching staff. On the field, defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann was named an All-American.

1971
Defensive back Tommy Myers intercepted an SU single-season record eight passes during a season in which a 28-24 win against West Virginia gave the Orange program its 450th victory.

1972
The SU streak of 22 consecutive non-losing seasons ended with a loss in the regular-season finale. SU finished 5-6. Defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann was the 10th overall pick in the 1973 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

1973
Ben Schwartzwalder retired after guiding the Orange to a 153-91 mark in 25 years. He was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1982.

1974
SU began Frank Maloney's seven-year coaching tenure with a 2-9 record.

1975
All-America Raymond Preston led the Orange to a 6-5 record and was invited to play in the East-West All-Star game. He enjoyed a nine-year NFL career as a linebacker with the San Diego Chargers (1976-84).

1976
Tim Moresco was a member of the victorious North squad in the American Bowl, a senior all-star game. It was the last year for the nine-year event. Five SU players were invited to play in the game.

1977
SU recorded a 6-5 record, including four consecutive victories to end the season.

1978
Joe Morris set the record for most consecutive 100-yard games in a season with four. He also set the freshman rushing record (1,001 yards). In the final game in Archbold Stadium, the Orange recorded a 20-17 victory against nationally-ranked Navy. SU had a 265-112-20 record in Archbold Stadium.

1979
With the razing of Archbold Stadium and the construction of the Carrier Dome, SU spent the entire season on the road, playing "home" games in the Meadowlands, Buffalo and Ithaca. Despite the obstacles, future NFL players Joe Morris, Art Monk, Bill Hurley, Craig Wolfley, Gary Anderson and Jim Collins led SU to its first bowl berth since 1967. Monk earned All-America honors for his effort as a wide receiver and was the 18th overall selection in the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

1980
Sept. 20 marked the beginning of a new era with the opening of the Carrier Dome. Joe Morris scored four touchdowns and had a record 300 all-purpose yards as the Orange christened its new home with a 36-24 win against Miami (Ohio). An all-time Syracuse record crowd of 50,564 witnessed the event.

1981
Down-easterner Dick MacPherson arrived on the scene, replacing Frank Maloney as head coach. Running back Joe Morris concluded his career as SU's all-time leading rusher and kicker Gary Anderson earned All-America honors.

1982
The winningest coach in Syracuse football history, Floyd "Ben" Schwartzwalder was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. On the field, defensive tackle Michael Charles was named an All-American.

1983
The Orange reached a program milestone – its 500th victory – with a 14-7 win against Navy.

1984
Syracuse native Tim Green earned the first of two consecutive All-America honors at defensive tackle. Green and his teammates grabbed the nation's attention with a 17-9 victory against No. 1-ranked Nebraska in the Carrier Dome.

1985
SU began a run of seven bowl berths in eight years, earning a spot opposite Maryland in the Cherry Bowl. SU lost to the Terps, 35-18, to finish the season with a 7-5 record. Defensive tackle Tim Green was named an All-American for the second year and became the 17th overall selection in the 1986 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Green was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

2002	West Virginia	34-7

The Orange won five of its final seven games, setting the stage for the following season's remarkable 11-0 regular season.

1987
SU finished the regular season with an undefeated 11-0 record and earned a trip to the Sugar Bowl, its first New Year's Day Bowl bid since 1965. Auburn's Win Lyle kicked a last-second field goal to force a 16-16 tie, the first deadlock in Sugar Bowl history. SU quarterback Don McPherson finished second in the Heisman race, but earned several other player of the year awards and All-America honors. In addition, nose guard Ted Gregory was named an All-American and was the 26th overall selection in the 1988 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos. Dick MacPherson was the consensus national coach of the year.

1988
SU put together consecutive double-figure win seasons for the first time, capping a 10-2 season with a 23-10 victory against LSU in the Hall of Fame Bowl. Defensive back Markus Paul was named an All-American, marking the second of six consecutive years the Orange was represented in this elite group.

1989
Syracuse football observed its 100th birthday and earned a third straight bowl invite. This time John Biskup hit a last-minute field goal to edge Georgia, 19-18, in the Peach Bowl and cap an 8-4 season. Center John Flannery and wide receiver Rob Moore earned All-America honors. Moore entered his name in the 1990 NFL Supplemental Draft and was taken first by the New York Jets.

1990
The Orange finished the regular season with a 7-4-2 record and an invitation to the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu. SU put the finishing touches on its fourth straight bowl game by shutting out Arizona, 28-0, behind freshman quarterback Marvin Graves. The Wildcats had not been shut out in 20 seasons (214 games), the second-longest streak in NCAA history at the time. Center John Flannery was named an All-American for the second year in a row.

1991
Paul Pasqualoni replaced Dick MacPherson as head coach and SU joined the BIG EAST Football Conference. Pasqualoni led the Orange to a 10-2 record, a perfect 5-0 BIG EAST record, and a 24-17 win against Ohio State in the Hall of Fame Bowl on New Year's Day. Qadry Ismail became SU's first-ever All-American kick returner, and the school's first two-sport All-American since Jim Brown. Ismail's second honor was in track & field, while Brown's was for his excellence in lacrosse.

The Legend of 44

Legends Jim Brown, Floyd Little, Ernie Davis' mother, Marie Fleming, Rob Konrad and Michael Owens were with former Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross (right) at the ceremony to retire No. 44 in 2005.

The No. 44 at Syracuse University is one of the most storied numbers ever associated with a college football program. Like tailbacks at USC, quarterbacks at Brigham Young and linebackers at Penn State, the running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — No. 44.

On November 12, 2005, the number was retired. It is displayed in the Carrier Dome rafters, honoring the legends who have worn it for the Orange.

Since 1954, 11 players have worn the number and three are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — certainly rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

Brown, who played at SU from 1954-56 and led the team to a Cotton Bowl berth, went on to become the NFL's all-time leading rusher and a member of the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame. He led the league in rushing eight times in his nine years. Many still point to him as the greatest running back of all-time. Among Brown's accomplishments at Syracuse was setting an NCAA single-game record of 43 points against Colgate in a 61-6 SU win.

Davis played for the Orange from 1959-61. He won the 1961 Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African American to do so, and was a starter on SU's 1959 national championship team. Davis also signed to play with the Cleveland Browns, but the devastating combination of Davis and Brown in the same backfield never came to pass. Davis died of leukemia in 1963. He was later inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Little was a three-time All-America selection for the Orange. He played for SU from 1964-66 and led the team to the Sugar Bowl in 1964 and the Gator Bowl in 1966 (teaming in the backfield with Larry Csonka in the latter). Little was the greatest kick returner in Orange history.

In addition to breaking the records of Brown and Davis, he led the nation in all-purpose yardage in 1965, averaging 199 yards per game. Little went on to have a tremendous career with the Denver Broncos, winning back-to-back rushing titles in 1970-71. He, too, is enshrined in the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame.

A committee has been established to oversee the number. Under very special circumstances, the committee can permit a current student-athlete to wear it.

1992
Paul Pasqualoni and the Orange again won 10 games and made SU's second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance, knocking off Colorado, 26-22, at the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe. It was the fifth straight bowl win for Syracuse, the second-best streak in the country at the time behind Florida State. Tight end Chris Gedney was a unanimous All-America selection.

1993
Another year, another winning season as the Orange finished with a 6-4-1 overall record. Breaking records was a regular occurrence during the campaign. Marvin Graves set new marks in almost every passing and total offensive category, while Shelby Hill, Pat O'Neill and Kevin Mitchell also left their names in the Syracuse record books.

1994
In keeping with the tone of the recent past, the Orange recorded an eighth straight winning season, finishing 7-4 overall. The passing combination of Kevin Mason to Marvin Harrison was prominent throughout the year, while the return of linebacker Dan Conley for a sixth season of competition after numerous knee surgeries was a story of perseverance and dedication.

1995
A young Syracuse team posted a 9-3 record and a victory in the Gator Bowl. The emergence of Donovan McNabb and his immediate chemistry with receiver Marvin Harrison provided thrills and records, as Harrison established himself as one of the all-time great receivers and return men at Syracuse. Harrison was the 19th overall player selected in the 1996 NFL Draft, selected by the Indianapolis Colts. Defensively, cornerback Kevin Abrams was an All-American.

1996
Despite getting off to an 0-2 start, the Orange won a share of the BIG EAST Conference title and once again was among the nation's elite. An eight-game winning streak in the middle of the season earned the Orange another postseason berth. Syracuse beat Houston in the Liberty Bowl for its seventh consecutive bowl victory, which was the nation's longest active bowl winning streak at the time. Cornerback Kevin Abrams earned All-America honors for the second year in a row.

1997
Syracuse won its first outright BIG EAST championship, clinching the crown with a 33-18 victory at Miami (Fla.). After opening the season with a 34-0 victory against Wisconsin in the Kickoff Classic, the Orange lost three straight games. SU then defeated Tulane to ignite an eight-game winning streak. The Orange played the first overtime game in school history against North Carolina State in the Carrier Dome. A 35-18 loss to Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl did not detract from the fact that the Orange was one of six teams to earn a Bowl Alliance bid. Free safety Donovin Darius was an All-America selection.

1998
SU started the season hosting eventual national champion Tennessee. After a 34-33 loss to the Vols, the Orange defeated defending national champion Michigan in Ann Arbor the following week, 38-28. From there, SU went 7-3 to win its second outright BIG EAST title, and third conference championship in a row, earning another Bowl Alliance bid. Syracuse faced Florida in the Orange Bowl. Donovan McNabb was selected with the second overall pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft, the highest a Syracuse quarterback has ever been selected. Kick returner Kevin Johnson earned All-America honors.

1999
Syracuse earned a bowl invitation for the fifth straight year and the 11th time in 13 years. The Orange posted a 7-5 record in the final season of the millennium. The Orange kicked it off with two victories and closed the century with a 20-13 victory against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl. Linebacker Keith Bulluck was selected in the first round (30th overall pick) by the Tennessee Titans in the 2000 NFL Draft. The University recognized the program's All-Century Team at the final home game.

Syracuse All-Century Roster

Syracuse ran its streak of winning seasons to 14 with a 6-5 record. Cornerback Will Allen was the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft.

2001
Syracuse continued its streak of winning seasons with its 15th in a row, posting a 10-3 record. SU beat Kansas State in the Insight.com Bowl for its 12th bowl win. Consensus All-American Dwight Freeney was selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, marking the fifth consecutive year that an SU player heard his name in the opening round.

2002
Syracuse played in two triple-overtime games, losing at Auburn and winning in the Carrier Dome against No. 8 Virginia Tech. Quarterback Troy Nunes concluded his SU career ranked in the top five on 10 different school record lists, while linebacker Clifton Smith and punter Mike Shafer etched their names among SU's record-holders, as well. In November, former standout quarterback Donovan McNabb was named to SU's Board of Trustees.

2003
Tailback Walter Reyes established the SU single-season records for rushing touchdowns (21), total touchdowns (22), and the Syracuse career mark for rushing touchdowns (38). Receiver Johnnie Morant, defensive tackle Christian Ferrara, and offensive tackle Kevin Sampson entered the fraternity of SU players selected in the NFL Draft.

2004
Running back Walter Reyes concluded his Orange career as SU's second all-time leading rusher with 3,424 yards. The Orange lost to Georgia Tech, 51-14, in the Champs Sports Bowl. Offensive tackle Adam Terry was chosen by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

2005
First-year Orange head coach Greg Robinson, who also served as the defensive coordinator, made an immediate impact. The pass defense jumped 69 spots in the NCAA statistical rankings from the previous year (90th to 21st), while the total defense went from 101st in 2004 to 57th in 2005. Free safety Anthony Smith led a group of four seniors who were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft when he was chosen in the third round by the defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers. Offensive tackle Quinn Ojinnaka (Atlanta Falcons), defensive end James Wyche (Jacksonville Jaguars) and defensive end Ryan LaCasse (Baltimore Ravens) were also selected.

2006
Delone Carter emerged as a capable running back in his freshman campaign. Carter ran for 713 yards, the second-highest total for a freshman in school history. In April, Tanard Jackson and Kelvin Smith were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft.

2007
Receiver Mike Williams set a school record with a touchdown catch in nine consecutive games and also tied the Orange single-season record with 60 receptions. The kick return duo of Max Suter and Mike Holmes had a big year, leading the BIG EAST in average yards per return (24.8). Sophomore nose tackle Arthur Jones recorded 17.5 tackles for a loss, the third-best season total in Syracuse history.

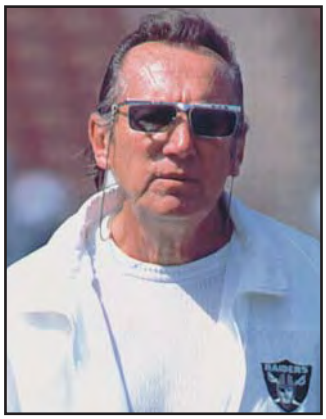
Al Davis, NFL Owner



A 1950 graduate of Syracuse University, Al Davis built a legacy at the helm of the Oakland Raiders. His journey began as an Orange scholar-athlete playing for the junior varsity football, basketball and baseball teams. He tenaciously studied the game of football by attending practices and sitting at the top of Hendricks Hill overlooking Archbold Stadium every Saturday. He tracked each play the Orange ran. Following every game, he and Syracuse head coach Ben Schwartzwalder compared notes.

Davis then transferred his skills to the coaching ranks, starting as an assistant at Adelphi College before making stops at Army, the Baltimore Colts, The Citadel, USC and then the Los Angeles Chargers. He joined the Chargers coaching staff in 1960, a move that launched him into stardom. Three years later, he became the youngest head coach in professional football when he was named head coach and general manager of the Oakland Raiders. Davis was named AFL Coach of the Year in his first season after guiding the Raiders to a 10-4 record. He is credited with turning the Raiders from a losing squad to one of the most successful franchises in the NFL. Dubbed one of the 'smartest men in professional football,' Davis turned Oakland into one of the winningest teams in pro sports from 1963 until 1991. The Raiders won one AFL championship, three Super Bowls and made 15 playoff appearances during his tenure as head coach. He is currently the only individual in professional football to have served as an assistant coach, head coach, commissioner, general manager and principal owner.

The 1992 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee was honored at Syracuse University in 1985 as an honorary Letterwinner of Distinction. He passed away in October 2011 at the age of 82.

The world premiere of "The Express," the life story of Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, was held in downtown Syracuse prior to SU's game against Penn State. Rob Brown, who played Ernie Davis, and Dennis Quaid, who portrayed Ben Schwartzwalder, were the honorary captains for the Orange. On the field, a 24-23 victory at Notre Dame announced the arrival of running back Antwon Bailey, who totaled 126 yards on 16 carries and scored a touchdown. Bailey keyed the game-winning touchdown drive with three carries for 29 yards. Quarterback Cam Dantley hit Donte Davis for the go-ahead score with 42 seconds remaining. Nose tackle Arthur Jones had 15 tackles against the Irish, including 4.0 for a loss. Running back Curtis Brinkley established an SU season record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (five) and was one of four SU players to sign with an NFL team. Fullback Tony Fiammetta (fourth round) and guard Ryan Durand (seventh round) were selected in the annual draft, while Brinkley and safety Paul Chiara inked free-agent deals.

2009
Doug Marrone returned to his alma mater as the program's 28th head coach after serving as the New Orleans Saints offensive coordinator for three years. Marrone brought in Syracuse native Greg Paulus to quarterback the Orange after a stellar four-year basketball career at Duke. Marrone's offensive system that helped Paulus set team season records for highest completion percentage (.677) and most completions (193). Punter Rob Long, a semifinalist for the 2009 Ray Guy Award, and defensive tackle Arthur Jones earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors. Jones was selected in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. Defensively, the Orange ranked sixth nationally in sacks, 13th in rush defense and 37th in total defense. Linebacker Doug Hogue set a Syracuse record with 6.5 tackles for loss against Rutgers en route to earning national defensive player of the week honors.

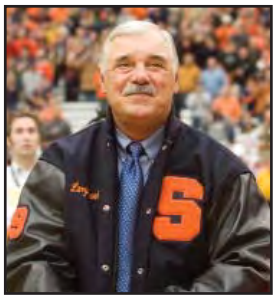
Honoring the All-Time Greats



Orange All-Americans Larry Csonka (above) and John Mackey (right) returned to the Dome in 2007 to celebrate the retirement of their Syracuse jerseys.

Syracuse football standouts Larry Csonka and John Mackey watched their Syracuse jerseys be raised to the Carrier Dome rafters in ceremonies during the 2007 season.

A two-time All-American, Csonka played for the Orange from 1965 through 1967. As a senior captain he earned consensus All-America honors. He had two 200-yard rushing performances in his career, galloping for 216 yards against West Virginia and 204 yards versus California as a senior. Csonka still ranks fourth on SU's career rushing record list (2,934 yards) and is second all-time with 15 career 100-yard rushing games.

"Larry Csonka is obviously one of the greatest players of all time," said former Syracuse Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross. "His accomplishments at Syracuse were amazing and then he went on to an outstanding career in the National Football League, including playing for the undefeated 1972 Miami Dolphins. We salute Larry for his legacy as we welcome him back to Syracuse."

Mackey, who passed away in July 2011 after a long illness, played for the Orange from 1960 through 1962. He had 27 receptions for 481 yards and scored six touchdowns. As a junior, he caught 15 passes for a then school-record 321 yards. He was a key contributor to Syracuse's 1961 Liberty Bowl triumph with four receptions against Miami (Fla.).

"John Mackey is arguably the greatest tight end in history and should be recognized as such," Gross said. "His level of play was something that the Syracuse community had the opportunity to enjoy during his career while calling him their own. We applaud his courage and will remember him forever by raising his jersey in the Carrier Dome for permanent display."

In 2013, Orange quarterback legends Don McPherson and Donovan McNabb joined the elite group with the retirement of their jerseys. McPherson was honored Oct. 5 versus Clemson and McNabb returned to the Dome for his ceremony on Nov. 2 against Wake Forest.

In just his second year at the helm, head coach Doug Marrone and his team made incredible strides. Capped by a thrilling 36-34 win against Kansas State in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl, its first bowl bid in six years, the Orange finished the season with a winning record for the first time since 2001. Four of those wins came in BIG EAST competition, including a victory at West Virginia to bring the Ben Schwartzwalder Trophy back to Syracuse after a nine-year spell. Linebackers Doug Hogue and Derrell Smith paced the Orange defense. The duo ranked first (114) and second (95) in tackles, respectively, and SU was seventh in total defense at the year's end. Offensively, quarterback Ryan Nassib led the passing attack with 2,334 yards. Running back Delone Carter led the Syracuse ground game, rushing for 1,233 yards, including 198 in the Pinstripe Bowl. Kicker Ross Krautman led the BIG EAST in field-goal percentage (.947).

2011

The Orange got off to a 5-2 start, including a 49-23 victory against No. 11 West Virginia in the Carrier Dome. Losses in the last five games, however, left Syracuse without a return trip to a bowl game. Defensive end Chandler Jones used a standout season to jump-start his NFL career. The younger brother of former SU star and NFL defensive tackle Arthur Jones was the New England Patriots' first pick (21st overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft. Guard Andrew Tiller was chosen in the sixth round, while Antwon Bailey, Michael Hay, Nick Provo, Phillip Thomas, Kevyn Scott and Dorian Graham signed free-agent contracts. Quarterback Ryan Nassib, Provo and receiver Alec Lemon turned in record-setting performances. Nassib had the best statistical passing season in school history to that point, establishing team records for completions (259), attempts (415), yards (2,685) and matching the record for touchdown passes (22). Lemon set the Orange season record for the most receptions (68) and matched the record for receiving yards by a junior (834), while Provo, a Mackey Award semifinalist as one of the nation's best tight ends, finished his career as the most prolific pass-catching tight end in school history. Provo set SU marks for receptions in a season (51) and career (92) for a player at his position. Jones, Provo, Tiller, Bailey and Justin Pugh earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors.

2012

In its final year in the BIG EAST, Syracuse won a share of the conference championship with a 5-2 league record. Syracuse defeated Big 12 representative and former BIG EAST rival West Virginia, 38-14, at Yankee Stadium for its second New Era Pinstripe Bowl victory. Quarterback Ryan Nassib surpassed his previous team records for completions (295) and attempts (415). Nassib also set new Syracuse records for passing yards (3,757) and touchdown passes (26). Lemon eclipsed his own season record for most receptions (72). Lemon, offensive tackle Justin Pugh and safety Shamarko Thomas earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors. Nassib earned Pro Football Weekly All-America honors. Pugh was drafted in the first round (19th overall) by the New York Giants, who also selected Nassib in the fourth round (110th overall). Thomas immediately followed Nassib to the league as the 111th overall pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Deon Goggins, Marcus Sales, Lemon, Zack Chibane, Brandon Sharpe and Lou Alexander all signed free-agent contracts.

2013

Syracuse won its third bowl game in four seasons, defeating Big Ten foe Minnesota, 21-17, in the Texas Bowl at Reliant Stadium in Houston. Scott Shafer joined Paul Pasqualoni as the only SU coaches to lead the team to a bowl victory in their first year at the helm. In ACC play, the Orange was 4-4 in its first year as a member of the conference and tied Boston College for third place in the Atlantic Division. The Orange finished in the top 10 in three NCAA statistical categories (fewest fumbles lost, blocked kicks and kick return yardage defense). Six members of the Orange earned All-ACC honors: Macky MacPherson (second team), Jay Bromley (third team), Durell Eskridge (third team), Jerome Smith (third team), Marquis Spruill (third team) and Sean Hickey (honorable mention). Bromley and Spruill were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. The New York Giants chose Bromley in the third round, while the Atlanta Falcons took Spruill in the fifth round.

2014

Syracuse opened the year with victories against Villanova and Central Michigan and finished the season 3-9 overall. The Orange was stout all season defensively, finishing 26th in the NCAA in total defense. The unit gave up just nine rushing touchdowns to join Alabama, Ole Miss and TCU as the only FBS teams to allow less than 10 rushing scores. Linebacker Cameron Lynch anchored the unit with 97 tackles, including 12.0 for a loss. Offensively, the Orange played four quarterbacks including rookie AJ Long who set Orange true freshman records in every major passing category and won his starting debut on Oct. 18 at Wake Forest. Senior wideout Jarrod West finished in the top 10 in the ACC for receptions per game (4.1) and receiving yards per game (58.3). Lynch (third team), offensive tackle Sean Hickey (third team) and punter Riley Dixon (honorable mention) received All-ACC honors.

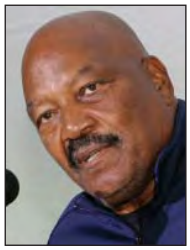
ORANGE IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

SUccess Stories

Syracuse is one of seven schools with at least seven alums in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Four of those men — Jim Brown, Larry Csonka, Floyd Little and Art Monk — are also enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.

JIM BROWN

Player



Inducted in 1971

The player that all running backs are measured against. Jim Brown is the only person in the College Football, Pro Football and Lacrosse Halls of Fame. Brown was a unanimous collegiate All-America selection in football and lacrosse. The 6-2, 232-pound Brown, the Cleveland Brown's top draft choice in 1957, is considered by many the finest runner to ever play the sport. He led the NFL in rushing in eight of his nine campaigns.

JIM RINGO

Player

Inducted in 1981

One of the greatest linemen in pro football history, Jim Ringo was the center of the great early Green Bay Packer teams and also the Philadelphia Eagles. Ringo was an All-NFL selection six times. He played in 10 Pro Bowls and three NFL championship games. Ringo was a member of Ben Schwartzwalder's 7-2 squad that earned a trip to the 1953 Orange Bowl, SU's first-ever bowl appearance.

LARRY CSONKA

Player

Inducted in 1987

Still considered the prototype for NFL fullbacks, Larry Csonka led the Miami Dolphins to an undefeated season and Super Bowl title in 1972. He was MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as Miami defeated Minnesota, 24-7. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three straight 1,000-yard seasons as the Dolphins advanced to the Super Bowl each of those years.

AL DAVIS

Owner

Inducted in 1992

Al Davis was the driving force behind the AFL-NFL merger. The owner of the Oakland Raiders built that franchise into the model for other pro sports teams.

JOHN MACKEY

Player

Inducted in 1992

John Mackey is known as perhaps the greatest tight end of all-time. He was an All-Pro for the Baltimore Colts and fought to establish free agency in the NFL. In 2007, Syracuse retired his jersey.

ART MONK

Player

Inducted in 2008

Known as one of football's most reliable receivers, Art Monk played for the Washington Redskins, New York Jets and Philadelphia Eagles. At the time of his retirement in 1995, Monk was sixth on the NFL's career reception list (940). He still ranks in the top 20.

FLOYD LITTLE

Player

Inducted in 2010

A multi-dimensional player, Floyd Little combined his rushing talents with great hands and also was a return man for the Denver Broncos. A five-time Pro Bowler, Little amassed more than 12,000 all-purpose yards during a career that spanned from 1967 to 1975.

ORANGE IN THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

SUccess Stories

Syracuse is one of the most represented schools in the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame as one of just 16 FBS schools with 18 or more enshrinees. In the Atlantic Coast Conference, Syracuse is tied with Pittsburgh for the most inductees.

The first SU representatives were coaches Frank 'Buck' O'Neill and Howard Jones, members of the College Football Hall of Fame's first class in 1951. Former standout wide receiver Art Monk is the most recent inductee, joining the Orange contingent in December 2012.

Syracuse is one of seven schools to have 18 or more inductees in the College Football Hall of Fame and at least seven enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Former Orange head coach Dick MacPherson celebrated his Hall of Fame induction with three of his former players: Doug Marrone, All-American Tim Green and 1987 Maxwell Award winner Don McPherson.

FRANK 'BUCK' O'NEILL

Inducted in 1951 • Coach

Coach Frank "Buck" O'Neill was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame along with former Orange coach Howard Jones. The pair were the first with Syracuse ties to be enshrined. O'Neill had a 52-19-6 record in eight seasons at SU in the early 1900s.

HOWARD JONES

Inducted in 1951 • Coach

Syracuse's head coach in 1908, Howard led the Orange to a 6-3-1 record. He and Frank 'Buck' O'Neill were enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame together in 1951, becoming the first Syracuse representatives to be inducted.

JOE ALEXANDER

Inducted in 1954 • Player

Joe Alexander played for the legendary Buck O'Neill and was a team captain in the late 1910s. A three-time All-American, he was the first player from SU ever inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

T.A.D. JONES

Inducted in 1958 • Coach

Thomas Albert Dwight Jones was a spirited leader of men, fearless and fox-like. Jones coached the Orange in 1909 and 1910, posting a 9-9-2 record. His career coaching mark was 66-24-6 and included nine years at Yale. An All-American quarterback at Yale in 1907, Jones was also the baseball team captain and class president.

CLARENCE 'BIGGIE' MUNN

Inducted in 1959 • Coach

Clarence "Biggie" Munn coached the Orange just one season, but remains one of the more revered coaches in Syracuse and college football history. Munn also coached at Michigan State.

LYNN 'PAPPY' WALDORF

Inducted in 1966 • Coach

Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf, who lettered for the Orange from 1922 to 1924, entered the coaching ranks in 1926. After serving as an assistant at Kansas in 1928, he became head coach at Oklahoma State. During his 30-year career, he also led the Kansas State, Northwestern and California programs. His career record was 170-94-22. Many regard Waldorf as the best coach in history in taking over a losing program and making it a winner.

BUD WILKINSON

Inducted in 1969 • Coach

Bud Wilkinson is best known for his work on the sidelines at Oklahoma. Wilkinson guided the Sooners from 1947-1963, winning three national championships. He was an assistant coach for SU in 1937.

VIC HANSON

Inducted in 1973 • Player

Vic Hanson is the only player in both the College Football Hall of Fame and Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. He recorded a 33-21 record as the head coach of the Orange in the 1930s.

ORANGE IN THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

All-American receiver Art Monk was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012, celebrating a standout career that included leading the Orange to the 1979 Independence Bowl.

ERNIE DAVIS

Inducted in 1979 • Player

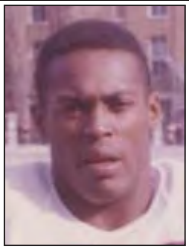
Syracuse's only Heisman Trophy winner, Ernie Davis was a first-round pick of the Cleveland Browns, but tragically died of leukemia before he could play in the NFL. During the summer of 2001, another Hall of Fame honored Davis as he was enshrined in the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame. In 2008, "The Express" brought Davis' life story to the big screen.

FLOYD 'BEN' SCHWARTZWALDER

Inducted in 1982 • Coach

The winningest coach in Syracuse football history, Ben Schwartzwalder led the Orange to 153 victories in his quarter century with the school. He was named the national coach of the year in 1959 after leading the Orange to an 11-0 record and the national championship.

FLOYD LITTLE



Inducted in 1983 • Player

Floyd Little is the sixth-leading rusher in Syracuse history and still holds the school record with 1,990 all-purpose yards during the 1965 season. He had an All-Pro career with the Denver Broncos and is also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

HUGH 'DUFFY' DAUGHERTY

Inducted in 1984 • Coach

One of the most colorful and beloved figures in football history, Hugh "Duffy" Daughterty played for the Orange from 1937 through 1939. Known for his wisdom, heart and long-lasting quotes such as, "a tie is like kissing your sister," Daugherty stayed on the SU sidelines as an assistant. However, military service caused him to put his coaching career on hold. In 1946, Daugherty returned to Syracuse with a Bronze Star, one of the Army's most prestigious honors. After one year on the SU staff with fellow Hall of Famer Clarence "Biggie" Munn, Daugherty followed Munn to Michigan State.

LARRY CSONKA

Inducted in 1989 • Player

Larry Csonka, a teammate of Floyd Little's, is still the prototypical fullback. He ranks fourth at SU in career rushing yards (2,934) and second in average yards per game (104.8). He led the 1972 Miami Dolphins to an undefeated season and a Super Bowl title. He is also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In 2007, Syracuse retired his jersey.

JIM BROWN

Inducted in 1995 • Player

Jim Brown is perhaps the greatest athlete of the 20th century. He is a member of the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame, as well as the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame. During the summer of 1998, Brown added another honor to his long list of achievements. He was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame as a member of its inaugural class.

TIM GREEN

Inducted in 2001 • Player

AFCA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

The American Football Coaches Association Academic Achievement Award recognizes football programs with the highest graduation rate annually. In 1999, Syracuse won the award after every member of the class who entered in 1994-95 earned his degree by 1999.

The AFCA also presents an honor roll award to schools with graduation rates of 70 percent or better. Since the award started in 1981, Syracuse has been on the honor roll 21 times.

SUccess Stories

Soladay Award

It is fitting that the Soladay Award is the most prestigious award given to a student-athlete by the Department of Athletics. After all, Doris R. Soladay epitomized all of the positives in intercollegiate athletics. The Soladay Award is given annually to the top male and female student-athletes who best exemplify the essence of Doris.

From her appointment as the first, and only, Director of Women's Athletics at Syracuse University in 1975 until the day she retired as Associate Director of Athletics on May 31, 1995, Doris dedicated herself to student-athletes wearing the Orange of SU. The SU Department of Athletics and the world of intercollegiate sports lost a dear friend when Doris passed away in May, 2001.

Doris established scholarships for women, while increasing the budgets to run the programs. She worked with the late Chancellor Melvin Eggers and others who supported women's athletics to begin Orange Plus. Throughout her career, Doris made it a point to attend every home athletic contest of every Syracuse team whenever possible. She often cheered on one team in the morning, another in the afternoon and a third in the evening.

Her impact on athletics reaches far beyond "The Hill," however. Prior to the NCAA taking women's athletics into its fold, Doris held offices on numerous committees in the AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) on the state, regional and national levels. After the merger Doris directed her energy into the NCAA Council, serving from 1989 through 1995.

Doris was also influential regionally where she was an integral part of the expansion of The BIG EAST Conference to include women's athletics, as well as chairing various committees in the league. The ECAC also benefitted from her knowledge and savvy, where she was a member of the ECAC Women's Steering Committee from 1983-87. For her many outstanding contributions, the ECAC honored Doris with the 1995 Katherine Ley Award, presented annually to a women's athletics administrator who serves as a role model for her colleagues, as well as a strong proponent of women's issues.

It is no secret that since her retirement her presence in the corridors of Manley Field House has been missed, but it is clear that her legacy will remain a part of the Orange forever.

The Zunic Award

The Zunic Award was created in 2001 to honor Mike and Judy Zunic who died tragically on July 18, 1989 when a United Airlines plane crashed in Sioux City, Iowa. The pilot, anticipating landing difficulties, requested if some strong passengers would volunteer to give up their seats and sit at the exit doors to assist passengers in the event of an emergency. Mike and Judy volunteered to give up their seats in first class and sit at one of the doors. Mike and Judy both died in the crash and those in the Zunics' seats survived.

Mike was a four-year starter at linebacker and earned a B.A. ('81) and Master's ('82) in speech communication.

Norma and William Zunic, the parents of the late Mike Zunic, were the first recipients of the award established in honor of their son.

SYRACUSE IN OVERTIME

The NCAA instituted overtime periods in 1996. Syracuse has an 8-6 on-field record in the 14 extra-session games it has played since then. In 2002, SU became the first team in NCAA history to have two games settled in triple overtime in the same season.

This list was compiled from several sources, including the Encyclopedia of Football. This list is as of June 2015. Compilation of players in CFL was assisted by Jay Langhammer, Dallas, Texas. NFL Europe list from Beth Long '06.

Players on current NFL, CFL, AFL, af2, IFL or UFL rosters are listed in CAPS. The years listed indicate calendar year, not NFL year. The year listed with Super Bowls indicates NFL season.

Teams listed are from the National Football League unless otherwise noted.

SUccess Stories

Tom Coughlin

New York Giants

In the NFL ...

- First head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars (1995-2002)
- 1995 UPI NFL Coach of the Year
- Guided the Giants to Super Bowl wins during the 2007 and 2011 seasons
- Has coached the Jaguars and Giants to a combined five division titles and nine playoff berths

At Syracuse ...

- Part of backfield that featured Floyd Little and Larry Csonka
- University's outsanding scholar-athlete as a senior
- Graduate assistant coach in 1969

"I take tremendous pride in having played at Syracuse. I played for a head coach (Ben Schwartzwalder) who was as fundamentally sound in the game as anyone who has ever coached it."

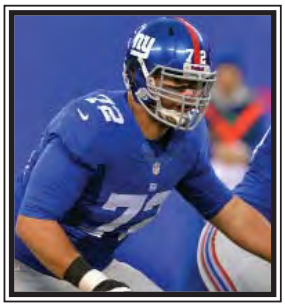
Justin Pugh

New York Giants



In the NFL ...

- First-round draft choice of the New York Giants in 2013
- Started all 16 games in his rookie season
- With the first string for 14 games in 2014

At Syracuse

- Three-year starter (2010-12) at offensive tackle
- Three-time All-BIG EAST Conference selection

"My time at Syracuse taught me to be a professional and a man, on the field, in the classroom and in the community. It helped me develop a foundation that I've been able to build from with the New York Giants. I had great coaches, great teammates, great professors and great people in the community who helped me succeed not only at Syracuse, but in the life I have now."

Pittsburgh Steelers

In the NFL ...
- 2013 Pittsburgh Steelers fourth-round draft choice
- Has played in 25 games in two seasons

At Syracuse
- Started 39-of-48 games at Syracuse
- 2012 All-BIG EAST First Team selection
- 263 career tackles

"While at Syracuse, everybody treated me as a man, not just as a football player. Coach Doug Marrone, Coach Scott Shafer and the other coaches, their mindset wasn't always just about football. It was about growing these young guys into men. And I feel like that's what Syracuse did for me. It developed me into a man, and it's helped me in the NFL, with how to be a pro and succeed in life."

DRAFT SELECTIONS & FREE AGENTS

The sixth player selected in the 1967 draft, Floyd Little (44) made an immediate impact on the Denver Bronocos. A multi-dimensional player, the five-time Pro Bowl and two-time All-Pro pick combined his rushing talents with great hands and also served as a return man. He amassed more than 12,000 all-purpose yards during a career that spanned from 1967 to 1975.
